Beautiful Specimens of Art.

The clear atmosphere which we have had during the past few days, has aided Mr. B. L. H. Dabbs, 26 St. Clair street, in bringing out a number of elegant and first-class photographs, which are now temporarily on exhibition at his rooms and in his beautiful windows. This is the proper season to obtain clear and distinct pictures, and all who have delayed should at one go to this well-known Gallery to have a negative taken. We can safely say that no where else in the country can photographs, plain or colored, large or small, be obtained in a better style of art than at Mr. Dabbs'. Being himself thoroughly acquainted with all the departments of the art, and employing none but the most talented and skilful artists as assistants, his popularity has been legitimately earned, and it is no wonder that all Pittsburghers take such local pride in comparing pictures taken at this establishment with those produced at the famous galleries in the Metropolitan cities. All the latest styles of pictures are taken at the most reasonable rates, and we invite our readers to call in and look through the specimens of photographic art found at Mr. Dabbs' rooms and galleries.

Notice Extraordinary.

From time to time we have published extraordinary cures effected by that remarkable medicine, known as DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER. Most of those are made here in the vicinity of Pittsburgh, and are entitled to the serious consideration of all those who are ailing and do not know how to get cured. There is really no humbug about this remedy. It has cured some of the most malignant diseases known to the medical profession, and its fame ought to be as wide spread as its deserves.

Those who regard Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher as one of the empirical nostrums of the hour, if they will investigate the matter will find out their mistake, and will find instead a safe, harmless and efficient cure, adapted to most non-febrile diseases.

We call to mind the case of a sickly young lady. In her case the fatty tissues of the body had melted away, the muscles had become relaxed and powerless, the nerves infused no energy, there was ennui and exhaustion of all the renewing powers of life, and a universal pallor overspread the once blooming cheeks and usurped the whole surface of the body. DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER was given, and almost at once the enfeebled stomach resumed its wonted office, the languid heart sent out with its usual force the vital current for the repair of the wasted tissues, and little by little each dormant function was called into healthful activity until health and beauty resumed their sway and maintained their accustomed dominion.

Many of the cures made by Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher would never have been effected if the persons afflicted had not become acquainted with its merits through newspaper advertising—therefore the doctor has deemed it proper to spread its fame wherever there is a sick man or woman to be cured. Ask for Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, and take no other. Sold at the doctors great medicine store, No. 140 Wood street. Consultation office 120 Penn street; office hours from 9, A. M., to 4 P. M.

How to Gain in Weight.

A gentleman, rather remarkable for his obesity, was asked where he obtained his meals, as the bill of fare must be exceedingly good, since he appeared to be growing larger and larger every day. The prompt reply was, "At the Continental Saloon, next door to the Postoffice, on Fifth street, which is kept by that prince of epicures—Holtzheimer." The answer was pert and to the point, for at the Continental the best meals to be obtained in the city are daily served up at the most reasonable of prices. Game—the rarest, steaks, fish, and everything to tempt the palate, are served up in a better style than could Professor Blot indicate, and if you eat one meal gotten up by Holtzheimer at a few minutes notice you will forever bestow your patronage on this place alone.

The Indian Herb Doctor, No. 194 Liberty Street.

DEAR SIR:—I feel I am only doing a duty in publicly stating my gratitude for the benefit I have received from the use of your Herb Medicines, which has given me ease and comfort after long years of suffering. My disease was as follows: Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, pain in the back, Inflamation of the Kidneys and Bladder, Swelling of the Abdomen, General Debility &c., &c. But now, thanks to God and your medecine, I enjoy refreshing sleep in my bed, and am now quite a new being.

CAPTAIN SCOTT,
Owner of the steamboat Hero. Residence, Lawrenceville.

The Doctor's office is 194 Liberty street.

The Best Known Tonic.

Caswell, Mack & Co.'s Combination of Iron Phosphorus and Calisaya, known as Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya. The iron restores color to the blood; the Phosphorus renews waste of the nerve tissue, and the Calisaya gives a natural, healthful tone to the digestive organs.

One pint contains the virtue of one ounce of Calisaya and one teaspoonful a grain of Iron and Phosphorus. Manufactured by

CASWELL, MACK & CO., New York.

For sale by all druggists.

To the Afflicted.

The old established medical office of Dr. E. Warner, (known for forty years as the original Indian physician or herb doctor,) and conducted for a number of years past by the son Dr. E. S. Warner, has been removed from St. Clair to No. 211 Penn street.

Dr. Warner still continues to treat successfully, diseases of nearly all descriptions, especially those of a chronic nature. Remember his new location is No. 211 Penn street, second door above Ben. Trimble's.

FROM KANSAS.

The Union Pacific Railroad and the Kansas Legislature—The Late Reported Indian Massacre Probably Untrue.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, Feb. 8.—Hon. J. P. Usher, late Secretary of the Interior, and Attorney of Union Pacific Railway Company, has addressed a letter to the Legislature, protesting against the existing State laws taxing that road, and declaring that the company will resist said taxation before the courts if persisted in. He also protests against any attempt to regulate the tariff on freight or passengers as unwise State policy at the present, and claims the State has no control of the subject, so far as the Union Pacific Road is concerned.

The Senate, in Committee of the Whole, has rejected a resolution asking Congress to transfer Indian Affairs from the Interior to the War Department.

The arrival of coaches from the west report the train which was reported captured by the Indians, to be some distance west of where the recent massacre is said to have occurred, leading to the belief that the previous reports were incorrect.

FROM MEMPHIS.

A Bold Highway Robbery—Chloroform Thieves on Steamboats—Ristori.

MEMPHIS, February 8.—Dr. J. G. Woolfolk, of Versailles, Kentucky, who left here day before yesterday, on the Louisville road, was found some 80 miles out, with both legs broken, and robbed. He was known to have had about $1,000 when he left. He is now in the city hospital.

Two bold robberies were committed on the steamer Clifton, at the wharf, this morning, by the robbers entering the state rooms and using chloroform. The thieves rlieved George W. Brown, of Metropolis, Illinois, of near $400, and Dr. Shattuck, of Little Rock, of near $300.

Ristori closed a most brilliant engagement to-night. The large Opera House was crowded last night to witness her rendition of Elizabeth, and to-night as Lady Macbeth. The press here are extravagant in her praise. She leaves for the Crescent City to-morrow to fill an engagement there.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

(SECOND SESSION.)

WASHINGTON, February 8, 1867.

SENATE.

TENNESSEE HOME GUARDS.

Mr. PATTERSON introduced a joint resolution for the payment of the Tennessee Home Guards, organized by order of General Burnside. Referred.

SOLDIERS' PAY.

Mr. WILSON reported the House bill to increase the pay of Quartermaster Sergeants of the Engineer battalion to thirty-six dollars per month.

Mr. TRUMBULL wanted to know if this was one of the bills for leveling up salaries. Every day or two such a bill was brought up. He objected to the practice.

Mr. WILSON said Mr. Trumbull was in the habit of lectoring Senators in a manner unworthy of the Senate.

Mr. TRUMBULL replied, questioning Mr. Wilson's right, to say what was worthy or unworthy of the Senate, and asserting his right to make such comments as he had up on this bill. The bill passed.

PRIVATE LAND CLAIMS.

Mr. HARRIS introduced a bill extending for three years, the provisions of an act for the final adjudication of private land claims in Florida, Louisiana and Missouri. Referred.

THE POSTAL LAW.

Mr. DIXON introduced a bill amendatory of the post office law, relative to letters held for postage and dead letters. Referred.

DIVISION OF THE SPOILS.

Mr. ROSS offered a resolution that after the commencement of the next Congress, the publication of the debate, in Congress be transferred from the Globe to the Chronicle.

Mr. McDOUGAL objected to its introduction, and the resolution lies over until to-morrow.

APPROPRIATION BILL.

The Legislative, Executive and Judicial appropriation bill was taken up.

The amendment of the Committee of the Whole, yesterday, relative to the salaries of District Judges, was agreed to, and that increasing the salary of the Judges of the Court of Claims was disagreed to.

Mr. WADE moved to strike out the name of the Daily Globe from the appropriation for reporting and printing the proceedings of Congress.

A debate followed, and it appearing that the contract with the Globe cannot be abrogated by either party to it without two years' notice, the amendment was rejected.

On motion of Mr. MORRILL the vote was reconsidered and the amendment passed—ayes, 24; nays, 14.

The bill was otherwise slightly amended and passed. It now goes to the House for concurrence.

PASSAGE OF THE NEBRASKA BILL.

Mr. WADE called up the Nebraska bill, and, without debate, it was passed over the President's veto. Yeas 31. Nays 9. The nays were Messrs. Buckalew, Davis, Doolittle, Foster, Hendricks, Morgan, Norton, Patterson and Saulsbury.

THE IRON CLAD DEPOT.

Mr. GRIMES called up the bill for an iron clad depot at League Island. Without action, the Senate went into Executive session and subsequently adjourned.

HOUSE.

ROLLS OF VOLUNTEERS.

A joint resolution was passed authorizing the Secretary of War to furnish certified copies of the muster in and muster out roll of any volunteer organization, to the Adjutant General of any State.

PACIFIC RAILROADS.

On motion of Mr. WENTWORTH, the Secretary of the Treasury was directed to communicate the amount of bonds issued to the Central Pacific Railroad Company, and the Union Pacific Railroad Company; the dates of issue, and the number of miles of road completed.

IMPORTATION OF FOREIGN CRIMINALS.

Mr. RAYMOND introduced a bill to prohibit the transportation of criminals from foreign countries to the United States, and prescribing punishment therefor. Deferred.

REBEL RAILROADS.

On motion of Mr. SPAULDING, the Secretary of War was directed to report what Railroad Companies in the rebellious States had purchased rolling stock or other property of the United States government, the amount thereof, with the amount remaining unpaid, the nature of the securities thereof, &c.

ASSAY OFFICERS.

Mr. KASSON introduced a bill to establish officers for the assay of gold and silver, at Denver, Colorado, Charlotte, North Carolina; and Dahlonega, Georgia; appropriation, $5,000 each, for repairing, building at Charlotte and Dahlonega; the business of these offices to be under the general control of the director of the mint at Philadelphia.

TEXAS CATTLE DISEASE.

On motion of Mr. CLARK, of Kansas, the Committee on Agriculture was instructed to inquire into the expediency of a commission to investigate the causes and results of the Texas cattle disease.

DEBATE ON THE STEVENS' BILL.

The debate on the Stevens' Bill was resumed.

Mr. SHANKLIN opposed the bill as more dangerous to civil rights than any measure ever presented. It was an enormous outrage on the people.

Mr. THAYER supported the bill. When enforced it would be followed by terms of reconstruction which would recognize the perfect equal rights of all citizens, and secure uniform liberty, happiness and prosperity throughout the country.

Mr. HARDING approved the sentiments of the bill. He represented a constituency which were determined, at any cost, to protect citizens of the United States against lawlessness and crime, which was the main object of the bill.

Mr. SHELLABARGER explained his reasons for voting for the bill, denying it was an improper or unusual interference with the rights of the President. This measure, however, standing alone, could not receive his support if it were not to be followed by measures to establish civil governments based on loyal suffrage. He would not vote for military measures of this kind.

Mr. HOTCHKISS advocated placing the Southern States under military control, but thought the law sufficiently covered that matter, if the President had not by his construction of the law, defeated it.

Messrs. GRISWOLD and RAYMOND made strong speeches against the bill.

Mr. GARFIELD supported it.

The House, by a vote of 61 against 89, refused to second the demand for the previous question.

[The telegraphic lines worked very badly last night, and this morning we are compelled to go to press without the close of the House report.]

FROM ST. LOUIS.

The City Sued by the Gas Company—Robberies—Probable Impeachment of a Judge for Disregarding the Test Oath.

ST. LOUIS, February 8.—The St. Louis Gas Company has brought suit against the city for $50,000 for the gas used since October last. The city claims the gas was much below the quality specified in the contract and refused to pay the bills of the Company.

Robert Kerr, a citizen of Wayne county, Ohio, on his way to examine land in Missouri, was robbed of $570 to-day by two confidence men.

Col. Knapp, senior proprietor of the Missouri Republican, left for Cuba a few days since, for the benefit of his health.

J. L. Tracy, an old journalist, and United States Inspector of Tobacco for this city, died to-day.

ST. LOUIS, February 8.—A few days ago Judge Moody, of the St. Louis Circuit Court, delivered an opinion that the oath prescribed by the State Constitution as a qualification for jurors was void; and especially so since the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Cummings case, and that he should not require persons summoned in his Court as jurors to take it. Yesterday Mr. Jewett, member of the Judiciary Committee of the Missouri House of Representatives, introduced a resolution citing the decision of Judge Moody, and asking the Judiciary Committee to inquire if said decision was delivered in open Court, and whether the Judge allowed jurors to serve without taking the oath, and if so, whether such action would justify proceedings for address or impeachment; if so, the Committee is instructed to report charges and specifications in the case.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Great Loss by Fire in Baltimore Yesterday—Three Business Houses Destroyed—Loss, Over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars.

BALTIMORE, February 8.—One of the most destructive fires for many years broke out this evening at the building No. 9 Commerce street, occupied by C. H. Ross & Co., as a rectifying and liquor establishment, which was entirely destroyed, with property valued at $150,000. The flames communicated to the store of Wm. D. Shultz & Co., fish dealers, and Adams & Davidson, No. 11. The former lost $50,000, and the latter $5,000. Ross & Co. were insured for $110,000 on their stock, all in Baltimore offices, and $20,000 on the building.

MR. PEABODY'S LAST AND GREATEST GIFT.

Over $2,000,000 to the Education of the Poor of the South-west.

R. C. WINTHROP, GEN. GRANT, BISHOP McILWAINE, AND OTHERS, TRUSTEES OF THE FUND.

Consideration of the Stevens Reconstruction Bill in the House.

PASSAGE OF THE NEBRASKA BILL IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8, 1867.

MR. PEABODY'S LAST AND GREATEST GENEROSITY.

George Peabody has addressed a letter to Robert C. Winthrop, Hamilton Fish, Bishop M'Ilwaine, General Grant and others, tendering as a gift the sum of ONE MILLION OF DOLLARS, to be held in trust, and the interest thereof applied for the promotion of intellectual, moral or industrial education among the young of the more destitute portions of the Southwestern States, without other distinction than their needs and opportunities of usefulness. He also gives permission to use from the principal within the next two years not exceeding forty per cent. He also gives Planters' Bank bonds of the State of Mississippi, amounting, with interest, to $1,100,000 on which no interest has been paid since 1840, but the validity of which was never questioned.

Mr. Peabody furthermore gives power, in case two-thirds of the trustees shall at any time, after the lapse of thirty years, deem it expedient to close this trust, and if the funds shall be in their hands, to distribute less than two-thirds among such educational purposes as they may determine in the States for whose benefit the income is now appointed to be used. The remainder may be distributed by trustees for educational or literary purposes, whenever they may deem it expedient.

Upon the receipt of the letter by Mr. Winthrop, a meeting of gentlemen was called to consider the matter, whereupon resolutions were presented by Bishop McIlwaine, and signed by those trustees presented in Washington, expressing to the doner their grateful appreciation of his enlarged and unprecedented generosity, and trust his valued life may be long spared to witness the success of his benevolent contributions to the happiness of his fellow-citizens in all parts of his native land. An organization has already been effected.

MR. STEVENS' RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

Mr. Stevens' Reconstruction bill, providing military government for the late insurrectionary States, was considered in the House to-day, and numerous short speeches made by members upon it, the Democrats, of course, and some of the less Radical Republicans, opposing the measure, mainly on the ground that it infringed upon the constitutional prerogative of the President as Commander-in-Chief of the army. The House refused to order the previous question on the passage of the bill, by a vote of 61 ayes to 89 nays.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN MAIL.

The Postoffice Department yesterday afternoon dispatched all the mail matter which has accumulated in Washington City for the South, by two steam tugs, which succeeded in forcing their way through the ice to Alexandria, where they connect with the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. Interruption to mail transportation is at an end for the winter.

THE TOBACCONISTS.

The Tobacconists' Convention appointed a Committee to wait on the Committee of Ways and Means to present various resolutions adopted for the promotion of their material interest.

BILL APPROVED.

The President has approved the bill providing that alcohol made or manufactured from distilled spirits, upon which the tax imposed by law has been paid, and burning fluid made or manufactured from alcohol or spirits of turpentine or camphene, upon which the tax imposed by law has been paid, shall be exempt from tax.

At the State Workingmen's Convention, at Albany, New York, yesterday, resolutions were adopted in favor of at least semi-monthly payment of wages, and also to petition the Legislature for a law giving wages the preference over all other claims in cases of insolvency; also, in favor of an indenture system as regards apprentices, and for the abolition of the tax on all incomes of and under $1,500, and inviting all workingmen's organizations to send representatives to the next Labor Congress, to be held in Chicago.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

OUR GUESTS.

A Pleasant Excursion—Inspection of the House of Refuge and Dixmont Insane Asylum—Speeches and Addresses—Banqueted by the City Fathers.

Our distinguished visitors, the members of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, yesterday entered upon their duties as inspectors, by invitation, of the Public Institutions of Allegheny County. At 10 o'clock in the morning, accompanied by the Judges of our Courts, city officials, members of the press, distinguished citizens and ladies, they marched from the Monongahela House to the Allegheny Depot, where a special train had been provided to convey the entire party to the House of Refuge and Dixmont Hospital. At a few minutes before eleven o'clock the train bearing the large delegation of "Inspectors" moved off, and soon arrived at the House of Refuge.

PLEASANT RECEPTION.

At the station were a number of well-clad, clean and neat looking lads, drawn up in military order, to receive their guests and patrons. They were headed by a brass band numbering some sixteen boy performers, which discoursed national airs in a manner that would have reflected credit upon more famous performers than the House of Refuge inmates, to which class belonged also the juvenile battalion. After the party had gotten out of the cars, the boys formed into column and preceded it, as a guard of honor, to the Chapel of the Refuge. Here the lads were dismissed, and the gentlemanly Superintendent, Prof. R. N. Avery, proceeded to welcome the honorable members.

BRIEF SPEECHES.

Mr. Avery said that he was requested by the Board of Managers to express, on their behalf and his own, the deep pleasure and gratification the visit from the Legislators of the State afforded them, and to extend to all a cordial and hearty welcome. The interest which the members had taken in the House, evidenced by the compliment of a visit, was appreciated, and he was glad that an opportunity was now afforded to show its patrons and friends the great good which the Refuge is accomplishing. The institution had kept trace of the former inmates, and in the majority of cases they had the most satisfactory accounts of their conduct, they being worthy members of society now, where they might have been otherwise if the good influences of this home had been withheld from them. The vicious boy or girl will either make a very bad man or woman or very good ones. The Refuge associates such with surroundings which can hardly fail to train their minds in a right channel of thought, and in most cases the result is good. He trusted that the inspection of the House would discover to them the wise benevolence which originated it for the redemption of the young, and excite and encourage the hearts of all to works of kindred charity and humanity. The results attained in the reformation of the scholars are not only of benefit to the individuals, but to the community at large. The scholars are trained into an activity of mind which will discover itself after they are placed in society, and will prove conducive to its good.

Professor Avery concluded his address by explaining the different departments of the institution and again welcoming the visitors.

Mr. John Harper, at the conclusion of Prof. Avery's address, introduced Senator McCandless, of Philadelphia, who briefly responded to the Superintendent's welcome. He stated that he knew not why he should be called upon, but as it was a soldier's duty to obey, he would not refuse. He thanked the Superintendent for the compliment paid his colleagues of the senate, and the members of the House, and expressed great satisfaction at the order and neatness shown in the institution. It was necessary that the "young idea" should early be taught "how to shoot." If started aright, the activity which would naturally have led them astray in the beginning, would redound to the lasting good, not only of themselves, but the community at large. He again returned thanks for the reception, and took his seat.

Hon. W. B. Waddell, of Chester county, Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, was next called upon, and responded briefly. He said the visitors came there to see and not to talk. They did talking enough in Harrisburg. He thanked the officers of the Institution for the cordial welcome extended, and assured them that the Legislature was deeply interested in the education of the youth of the State. While crime was on the increase, he felt that institutions of this kind would check it. The reputation of this particular institution was good, and he felt satisfied that the Legislature would make the necessary appropriation to sustain it. They should feel confident that it would be expended in the way that would do the most good. The members of the Legislature were the guardians of the public funds, but he was sure the community would be satisfied if they made a suitable appropriation.

James Robb, Esq., one of the managers of the institution, here wisely suggested that speech-making be deferred until the visitors should have had examined the various departments, as then they could speak more knowingly of the merits of the Refuge.

INSPECTION OF THE HOUSE.

The party proceeded then to the inspection of the various departments. They were accompanied by the Superintendent and Board of Managers, all of whom took great pains to explain the workings of the various departments. We started out making copious notes of our observations in the tour through the chapels, school rooms, whip shops, shoe shops, sleeping rooms, dining halls, &c., &c., but found that our space would not permit us to give the institution such notice here as it deserves, and defer it until another more favorable opportunity. It will suffice to say, however, that everything was in the most perfect order and faultless, while the appearance of the scholars was neat and tidy. Each appeared happy and contented and the visit seemingly afforded them much pleasure. There are at present one hundred and ninety-four boys and sixty-six girls in the Refuge. The girls sang several very pretty hymns while the visitors were in their school room, and in this exhibited rare training and precision. After the various departments were gone through, the company assembled in the court yard where the boys were drilling in military style. The lads merited hearty applause, as their evolutions would have been creditable to the Chicago Zouaves. They were finally marched into the dining room, where their frugal meal was in waiting for them, and the guests were also invited to dinner, but it was to a more tempting one than that spread before the inmates. We need hardly observe that the good things rapidly disappeared before the hungry Senators, Representatives and other visitors.

The Legislators expressed themselves very freely in admiration of the House of Refuge and its management, and took pleasure in complimenting the Superintendent upon the general good order, comfort and economy observable in and about the premises.

TO DIXMONT.

At one o'clock the entire party, headed by the Refuge Brass Band, took the train for Dixmont, where they arrived within a few minutes. Here they formed in procession, and with stirring music toiled up the romantic hill upon which the very excellent home for the insane is located. They were cordially welcomed by Dr. Reed, the gentlemanly and efficient Superintendent, and were comfortably disposed of in the halls and drawing rooms for a brief season of rest. The legislators were completely taken aback at the character and appearance of this beautiful hospital, as they had little expected to find a structure so imposing and beautiful hidden away among the hills of a western county. Indeed, they were excusable. Dixmont Hospital is not half appreciated either at home or abroad. Here the poor suffering mortals whose reasons have been dethroned, and who are objects of sympathy and commisseration of all that have a spark of humanity in their hearts, are afforded a quiet home, a place of rest which the world denies them. It is managed in an admirable manner, conducted upon an economical and yet not niggardly basis, and made comfortable for the inmates, who, in other places, would be wretched. It commends itself to the best wishes of all Christians. Assistance, that its field of labor may be extended, is asked for from the Legislature—is needed. A new wing to the building, for the confinement of the criminal insane, those who are only to be safely trusted in separate and distinct departments, is now undergoing the process of completion. It is built in the same style of architecture which characterizes the other portions of the main structure, and we believe was originally embraced in the primary design, but its erection was deferred for want of funds, till the actual, living necessity demanded its completion. When ready for occupation a number of the patients now confined in the other wards will be placed in new quarters in order to make room for more curable cases, now awaiting admittance.

The visit of the Legislators to the Hospital yesterday will not be without its good fruits. All were sensibly moved with the mute appeal of the helpless insane, and not a person left the walls of Dixmont yesterday but had formed within his heart new resolutions to perform the work laid out for him by a Divine Providence, to help and care for God's afflicted children.

AMONG THE INSANE.

The male portion of the party were conducted through the various wards and spent some little time among the insane. We have not the disposition to narrate any of the incidents which occurred. The lesson was holy. Let the discontented or ambitious worldly man pay the hospital a visit, mingle among the patients, and observe the various freaks of wrecked minds, and our word for it, he will retire a wiser, better, happier man. He will thank God that his lot in life has been as it is and no worse.

The inmates were clean and comfortable, and exhibited the marks of rare good care and attention. The apartments are marvelously well kept. Not a single blot soiled the walls of virgin white floors of the different wards.

Compliments were heaped upon Dr. Reed and his assistants for the admirable order in which the guests found the hospital. Nothing was misplaced. All was precision, and yet preserved a homelike appearance. We might here mention that the halls, rooms and parlors were handsomely festooned with evergreens, and mottoes bearing appropriate sentiments of regard and welcome to the distinguished visitors.

A DINNER.

At five o'clock the entire party of visitors, numbering some one hundred and fifty were seated at a table in the commodious dining hall, for dinner. The very excellent meal was discussed, after a heavenly blessing had been invoked by Rev. Mr. Reed, and the inner man and woman having been fully satisfied, the party adjourned to the Chapel where a meeting was organized. The following gentlemen were elected as officers of the occasion:

President—Hon. W. B. Waddell, Chester.

Vice-Presidents—Gen. W. H. McCandless, Philadelphia; Hon. John P. Glass, Allegheny; Hon. Walter H. Lowrie, Allegheny; Hon. George A. Quigley, Philadelphia; Hon. Peter Collins, Schuylkill; Hon. Frank Mechling, Armstrong; Hon. C. Burnett, Monroe; Hon. E. H. Stowe, Pittsburgh; Geo. A. Berry, Esq. Pittsburgh.

Secretaries—Hon. Levi Mish, York; Hon. Allen Craig, Carbon; Col. John P. Linton, Cambria; Hon. E. D. Roush; Jno. B. Kennedy, Esq.; Guyan M. Irwin, Esq.; Thos. P. Houston.

The exercises were opened by the singing of the doxology by the entire party led by Prof. Slack, after which Senator T. I. Bigham delivered a neat and fitting address of welcome, in which he paid a glowing tribute to Miss Dix, the Alma Mater of the hospital, who was present. He then proceeded to read the address of John Harper, Esq., of the Board of Managers, which was as follows:

GENTLEMEN:—The extensive and picturesque domain around you was purchased by private benefactions; this Hospital Building was erected through the liberality of the State; and when finished it will have over seven hundred feet frontage, with a capacity to accommodate four hundred patients. I am proud to say this great, free, independent State has ever been just and generous to her poor insane. Your presence at Dixmont to-day is the evidence of Pennsylvania's sympathy for this afflicted class of her citizens.

For the ages of the future, within these walls kind and devoted physicians and attendants will

"Minister to mind diseased,
And pluck from memory its rooted sorrows."

Here oil will be poured on the wild tumultuous waves of thought, stilling their rage and restoring their lost harmonies. And these waves of thought, attuned to thankful words, will invoke and obtain God's blessing on Pennsylvania and her legislators, who are the almoners of her benefactions and the conservators of her virtue.

While claiming no excellence above the other States of the Union, Pennsylvania has inscribed on her coat of arms the grandest words humanity can utter—"Virtue, Liberty and Independence." Introspection being a cardinal duty, let us investigate for a moment our title to the noble motto emblazoned on our shield. "Liberty and Independence" stand there unchallenged. American Liberty was cradled in the bosom of Pennsylvania, and under the protection of her laws Liberty will ever find a home. When treason and the powers of darkness combined to fetter and destroy it, Pennsylvania called her gallant sons to the rescue, and triumphed. Every battle field attested their courage, and is consecrated by their blood. American independence was first proclaimed in Pennsylvania. A Virginian wrote the Declaration; but it required the free aid of our noble state to vocalize it in breathing thoughts and burning words.

Pennsylvania is a sovereignty, self-relying and self-controlling. Her only obligation is loyalty to the National Union. Her climate is salubrious. Her soil fertile, and abounding with treasures of nature. "She has coal enough to warm friends, and iron enough to cool her enemies." From her bosom flow rivers of oil, lubricating the wheel of commerce and enlighting the world.

After the most exhausting war of modern times, Pennsylvania has risen with increased wealth and power. She has relinquished her land tax, yet is increasing her public debt. She is independent in spirit; independent in deed; and consciously proud of her independence.

But first on her escutcheon is displayed the word "Virtue." What is Pennsylvania's claim to its use? Is Virtue manly courage, uprightness? Virtue is manly courage, uprighteness, justice, fortitude, charity—in short, the only immortal thing that belongs to mortality. Perfection is not an earthly quality; and our enquiries shall not be too searching. The curse of God rested on the man who uncovered his father's shame. As patriots we should never question, but even defend the State's honor. Public virtue is but the concentration of private virtues. In the abundance of these a State is illustrious and its people honorable. To merit the respect of the world the virtues which reflect a lustre upon humanity must be promoted. Prominent among these are founding and fostering institutions to reform the wayward and vicious; to succor and provide for the helpless and infirm; and to cure the greatest of human woes, insanity. If her virtue is ever challenged by a censorious world, Pennsylvania can proudly point to her institutions of reform and charity, founded and cherished by her benevolence, and governed by the law of kindness; and with the dignity of the Roman nation, when asked to show her jewels, say: "These are my children; the gems of my crown, the vindicators of my honor!"

Mr. Waddell, Senators McCandless and McConaghy, Judge McCandless and others, delivered impressive discourses, which we regret our space will not permit any extended notice.

At the request of Miss Dix the "Star Spangled Banner" and "Hail Columbia" was sung by the audience, and the meeting adjourned.

In closing our report of the proceedings we desire to return thanks to Col. J. P. Glass, Senator Graham, Jas. Robb, Esq., and other gentlemen who extended us favors.

The Legislators will visit the Penitentiary this morning and will return to Harrisburg this evening.

THE RECEPTION BANQUET—THE LEGISLATURE AT THE MONONGAHELA HOUSE.

The Select and Common Councils, as per adjournment, proceeded, at the appointed time, to the Mayor's office and thence in a body to the Monongahela House. There they met and were introduced informally to the city's guests. After a brief time spent in conversation, the entire party, consisting of the Legislative visitors, the members of Councils, and a few invited guests, proceeded to the magnificent dining room and were called to order by Colonel John P. Glass, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and took seats at the magnificently spread tables. Some time was spent in doing vigorous justice to the various and sumptuous viands spread before the guests, and after the banquet, the meeting was again called to order by his Honor, Mayor McCarthy, who called upon President McAuly, of the Select Council, to welcome the guests on behalf of the Select and Common Councils. President McAuly responded briefly, offering, on behalf of the Councils and the people of the city the most cordial welcome to the city's guests. He proceeded briefly to sketch the great institutions to visit which the Legislators had visited us. He spoke forcibly in favor of a free railroad law, and not so decidedly on the subject of consolidation. He urged, in conclusion, liberal appropriations in support of our public institutions. The speaker was frequently interrupted by loud applause.

Colonel John P. Glass, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was called upon to respond on behalf of the guests. He spoke, briefly excusing himself, and delegating, to respond for him, Mr. Waddel, of Chester, Chairman of the House Committee on Ways and Means. Mr. Waddell replied, thanking those who had so cordially welcomed the legislative party.

Hon. John M. Kirkpatrick was loudly called upon, but insisted on being preceded by Senator Bigham. That gentleman spoke briefly and on taking his seat demanded that Mr. Kirkpatrick speak. Mr. Kirkpatrick, amid loud cheers, arose and spoke at some length, frequently interrupted by applause, urging liberal appropriations for the support of our institutions, the passage of a free Railroad Law and the consolidation of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and the outlying districts. The speaker was repeatedly overwhelmed with applause. He was followed by several other speakers and the exchange of sentiments continued to a late hour.

The Odd Fellows' Thanksgiving Day.

At a special meeting of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, I. O. O. F., held in Philadelphia, on Monday last, a committee to whom was referred a proclamation of the Right Worthy Grand Sire of the Grand Lodge of the United States, reported preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, setting aside the 26th of April, 1867, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, for the wonderful preservation of the Order during the civil war which so sadly devastated the land, and divided the people. It was recommended that the observance of the day should be of a devotional and religious character. The officers of the Grand Lodge were directed to prepare a circular to be addressed to the various lodges, setting forth the manner and form in which the Grand Lodge has decided that the day shall be observed.

The Graveyard Infanticide—Arrest of the Child Murderer.

On Wednesday afternoon, as we have already reported, a fully developed male infant, newly born, was found strangled on a grave in the Presbyterian burying ground, on the Morning-side road, just beyond the Allegheny Cemetery. There were strong evidences of its having been born where it was found, but at first no clue by which the perpetrator of the revolting infanticide could be traced, appeared. There were stories of course. One person living in the vicinity thought he had heard a carriage drive up near the place where the child was found, stop and drive back. About an hour afterwards the same party thought he heard the carriage drive up again and return. That story was found to be baseless, as were others that started.

The case was put in the hands of officers Bush, McMullen and Dressler to "work up" and so successfully did they conduct the matter, that yesterday morning the guilty mother was found, arrested and locked up. The first step was to inspect thoroughly the yard where the crime was committed. A broken board near the grave, on which the child lay, gave the evident means of ingress, and leading from the spot to the other side of the ground were tracks. These were traced to the high, close board fence, about seven feet high, which bounded that side of the inclosure. Close inspection here showed the marks of the feet of some person who had climbed over the fence at this point, and on the top of the fence was some blood. Beyond this no traces existed, and the motive which impelled the mother to such a desperate undertaking as the climbing of that high fence, at such a time, rather than go out as she came in, is a mystery.

A house in the neighborhood was visited and the German woman living there, gave such answers to questions put to her, as led to the belief that a woman living in the neighborhood and passing under the various names of Rachel Small, Ann Small, Rachel Hunnewell and Ann Hunnewell, had within a day or two become a mother, and was concealing the fact. Another woman, also, residing near there, stated that she had seen, on Wednesday morning, a woman dressed in black dress and shawl and wearing a shaker bonnet with a black cape, going from near the grave yard in the direction of Hunnewell's house, where Rachel had lived of late.

The house of Hunnewell, Rachel's father, was next visited on Thursday afternoon, and strict search and inquiry made, but Rachel was not there. The demeanor of the family was such as to confirm the suspicions already entertained. The daughter of the suspected woman—a girl of sixteen, who is herself the mother of a child two years old, showed great trepidation immediately, and before anything concerning the child murder had been said, declared that her mother had nothing whatever to do with the finding of the child. A strict watch was kept of the premises all night by an officer stationed on the outside, but no sign of the presence of Rachel was discovered.

Meantime another officer had made inquiries at the house of Mr. Walkinshaw, where, as had been ascertained, Rachel had worked last summer and had left her clothing when she went home. There it was learned that on Wednesday evening Rachel had come to the house and got her carpet bag, saying that she was going out to service again. She wore to the house a black dress, black shawl and shaker bonnet trimmed with black. Rachel formerly lived at Sewickley and it was thought that she would go there, so an officer was dispatched to that borough, but returned unsuccessful. Further inquiries had been made at Hunnewell's, and it was at last ascertained that the suspected woman had left home on Thursday morning to go to work in a family living somewhere in the Second ward of Allegheny, near the Penitentiary. Diligent search was made on this vague information and yesterday morning an officer on the lookout, saw a woman answering Rachel's description exactly, come out of the house of Mrs McCreary, on Beaver street, and return. An interview with her convinced the officer that this was the one of whom he was in search, and he arrested and brought her to the lock-up, where she now remains, awaiting a hearing to-day. She had entered the family, as a servant, on Thursday morning, something more than twenty-four hours after the child was born!

At first she denied all knowledge of the case whatever. Eventually, however, she acknowledged that she had given birth to a child, but that the birth was premature. At last she acknowledged that the child found in the cemetery was hers. She said that she arose at four o'clock on Wednesday morning, hoping to reach the Travelers' Home or some other public house, but that she could get no further than the cemetery. She remained there some time after the child was born, and then climbed the fence. She says the child was dead when born, but Dr. McCook yesterday made a post mortem examination of the remains, and declares that it had lived after birth.

The wretched mother is about thirty-five years of age and a very large, powerful woman. Her proper name is Rachel Small, and she is a widow. She states that the father of the child is a steamboat man who did reside in Pittsburgh. She says her mother knew of her condition, and it was the fear of her violence which made her go away when the child was to be born. She declared last night that she would commit suicide if she were not released, and had to appear before the Mayor.

Special Meeting of Councils.

A special meeting of the City Councils was called for last evening to make arrangements for paying their formal respects to the visiting members of the Legislature. In the Select Council the members present held an informal meeting and joined the Common Council in joint session.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Members present, Messrs. Barnhill, Boggs, Coursin, Ford, Hemphill, Jones, Mawhinney, McQuewan, McClelland, Rebman, Roberts, Seibert, Tomlinson, Verner, Weldon, Welsh, Steel, President.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mr. McQuewan moved that the action of Council on the vacation of Spruce alley, in the Ninth ward, be reconsidered.

Mr. Ford seconded the motion.

Mr. Coursin moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, upon which the yeas and nays were called. The following is the result of the ballot:

AYES.—Barnhill, Boggs, Coursin, Hemphill, Rebman, Reed, Roberts, Welsh.—8.

NAYS.—Mawhinney, McQuewan, McClelland, Seibert, Tomlinson, Verner, Weldon, President Steele.—9.

The motion to lay on the table was declared lost.

The question on the motion to reconsider was put and carried. Thereupon the resolution adopted at last meeting reconsidering the legislation to adopt an act vacating Spruce alley was reconsidered and laid over until next meeting.

The members of the Select Council were invited to seats in the Chamber.

JOINT SESSION.

The members of the Select Council having accepted seats in the Common Council chamber, Dr. Gallaher moved that the Council adjourn to meet in a body at the Mayor's office and proceed together to the Monongahela House, there to pay their respects to the legislative visitors. Carried.

On motion adjourned.

More of the Allegheny Depot Trouble.

We mentioned a day or two ago that two or three drivers of express wagons at the Allegheny depot had been arrested and fined for disorderly conduct. The matter did not end there. It seems that there is no little rivalry between the hack drivers and the express men at the depot. A hack driver named Samuel McMiel, as is alleged, continually taunted Thos. Patterson, one of the arrested expressmen with having been before the Mayor, Patterson resented this, and McMiel then rejoined with language so abusive and violent that Patterson came before Mayor Morrison and made information for disorderly conduct against McMiel. The latter was arrested and held to bail for a hearing.

The Ticket Robbery.

We yesterday stated that three boys, named John Kelly, Norris Stetler and Wm. Gillispie, had been arrested by Fred. Aimes for the larceny of tickets from his ticket box, at the Penn street Varieties. The tickets were found in their possession, but they claimed they had obtained them from another boy named Michael Dunn, who had stolen them. Dunn was arrested yesterday morning, and the parties had a hearing yesterday afternoon. The hearing resulted in the committal, in default of three hundred dollars bail each, of Dunn and Kelly, for trial. The others were discharged.

Judas Like.—Yesterday John Y. Fetland came to the office of Alderman McMasters, on the corner of Grant and Seventh streets, and made information charging John Jackson with assault and battery. The parties reside in Oakland, and have been heretofore warm friends. On Thursday they met near the Copper Works. Jackson held his hand out very cordially, and as the other took it, Jackson, as is alleged, struck him a violent blow in the face. The parties met at the office of the magistrate, and the affair was amicably settled, the sum of $10 being raised among the "mutual friends" as a panacea for Fetland.

At a Meeting of stockholders of the Pittsburgh Insurance Company, held on Tuesday, the 5th inst., the following directors were elected to serve for the ensuing year:—George Black, C. W. Batchelor, Samuel McClurkan, James Marshall, Charles Arbuthnot, R. H. Hartley, James Gordon, Andrew Miller, F. Rahm, A. Bradley, John Scott, James Collord, M. K. Morehead, William Carr, D. R. Galway, C. A. Dravo, C. Yeager. The new Board met yesterday morning and re-elected the following officers:—George Black, President; C. W. Batchelor, Vice President; William B. Neeper, Secretary; James Marshall, Secretary.

Extensively Victimized.—A "Foreigner" Robbed.

Another case of victimization was before Mayor McCarthy, yesterday afternoon. The victimized is a German named Wilhelm Melching, living at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and the owner of sixteen hundred acres of land thereabouts. The victimizers are Jacob Wagner and Josephine his wife. Melching frequently has occasion to visit this city, and when here usually stops at Reinhardt's, tavern near Canal street on Penn. About six weeks since he came to the city on business, but during his stay engaged in a foreign business, and being addicted to an excessive use of lager, he was not always of sufficient mind to properly care for himself. It is alleged that he visited a house of ill repute on Liberty street, Fifth ward, remaining there all night. In the morning, he found that he was minus the sum of $100. His suspicions led to the arrest of the lady with whom he had lodged that evening, well known to the police here as Hetty Stanly Hetty Knappman and Hetty Henderson. At the hearing before Alderman Taylor, it appeared that he had been in such a condition as to be unable to account for himself, and there being no evidence to fasten the guilt on her, she was accordingly discharged. Melching arrived in the city again, fourteen days ago and as usual could not withstand his fondness for liquor. Putting up as usual at Reinhardt's, he came in contact with the boarder of that hotel, the man named Jacob Wagner. The wife of Wagner also stopped at this place. Knowing that Melching was a man of means and had considerable money about him, a trap was arranged by the parties referred to. While under the influence of liquor, on Thursday night, Melching consented to take Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, and a Jew who acts as clerk at Reinhardt's, to the Theatre. The parties all entered into the arrangement heartily and visited the theatre, and with the exception of the Jew, remained until the close of the performance.

Coming out, Wagner said that their house would be shut up, and conducted Melching to the Mansion House. They engaged a room with two beds, Melching sharing his couch with Mrs. Wagner. On retiring to bed he had in his possession $215. At four o'clock he awoke and found himself alone, his companions and his money having departed. He immediately repaired to the Union Depot and informed officer Bell of the robbery. Wagner, it appears, had been at the depot at three o'clock inquiring when the first train would leave for the East. About six o'clock Wagner and wife came to the Depot, and were arrested by officers Bell and Havis. An examination of Mrs. Wagner found the sum of eighty dollars snugly stowed away in her right stocking. They were then both conveyed to the lock-up, where a more rigid examination was had, resulting in finding the sum of one hundred and twelve dollars in the left stocking. The description given of the money lost by Melching, corresponds with that found upon the person of Wagner's wife, and it is further stated that previously the prisoners were never known to have anything like that amount. Wagner was seen to give some money to his wife at the time of their arrest. Wagner at the hearing denied the robbery and said he was only taking care of Mr. Melching's money for him. The hearing resulted in the accused being committed in default of bail for a further hearing to-day.

A Reliable and Skillful Dentist.

Few of our readers are unacquainted with the first class dental establishment of Dr. Quincy A. Scott, No. 271 Penn street. It has long enjoyed an enviable reputation, and daily fresh testimonials of the durable style of work performed, are being received. To-day Dr. Scott advertises full sets of complete artificial teeth at the low price of eight dollars, which will give satisfaction as well as much more expensive articles, sold at other establishments. Possessing thorough knowledge of the science of dentistry, aided by a prolonged experience in the business, Dr. Scott can safely be commended to all who desire any work in his line. The departments in his establishment are all under the direction of skillful and finished artists, who are particularly careful that each set of artificial teeth turned out from their hands will bear the impress of superiority and sustain the high reputation of the establishment. Teeth that are decaying, and which may be saved from utter destruction by timely filling or plugging, are carefully attended to, and we advise all persons who stand in need of any dental service in this line to favor Dr. Scott with a visit. The other, and to most folks disagreeable part of the profession, the extraction of teeth, is accomplished without any pain, and no person should suffer a single hour from tooth-ache, so long as this dental establishment is so easily accessible. We cheerfully and earnestly recommend Dr. Scott to our readers as one of the first dentists of America, and one in whose workmanship all will be fully satisfied.

A Hundred Dollar Greenback Discounted.

Signor Antonio Fataski, an Italian apple and pea-nut merchant of this city, who rejoices in the possession of a flourishing business stand, attached to the alley side of the Bank Block, Fifth street, was made the victim yesterday of a shrewd confidence operation. Signor Antoino was approached by a gentlemen of the usual "prepossessing appearance," who, after some trifling purchases, desired to obtain greenbacks of a large denomination, for one hundred dollars in twenty-five cent postal currency, exhibiting at the same time four neat packages, apparently composed of "quarters," new issue, each of which, it was stated, contained twenty-five dollars. The Italian handed over a hundred dollar "Spinner," and received therefor the packages, which, his new friend told him, would be very convenient in making change. A commercial transaction in the pea nut line, a few minutes later, which necessitated the making of change, revealed the fact to Antonio, that he had secured just four quarters, and three hundred and ninety-six pieces of blank bank note paper for the hundred dollar bill. Information of the swindle was at once given to the police, but all efforts at discovering the author of the pleasant little mistake were unavailing.

Another Sad Case.

Another case of crime and sorrow, one of the experiences which have become so frightfully common of late, came to our knowledge yesterday. A young lady of about twenty years of age, an orphan and somewhat of an heiress, came to this city some time ago from the country district in which she was born, and where she had resided until she came here. Here she made the acquaintance of a man with whom she soon became intimate. Her new friend was an Englishman, residing on the south side of the Monongahela. He was comparatively young, and professed to be unmarried. His devotion to the young lady became marked and earnest, and in due time he became her betrothed husband. Under promise of marriage, he took advantage of her love for him, and effected her ruin. When it was too late, and the fatal consequences of her indiscretion were inevitable, the unfortunate girl discovered that her betrayer was a married man, having a wife and three children residing somewhere in the vicinity of the city. About a week ago the victim of perfidy gave birth to a child, at a friend's house in Allegheny, and yesterday she made information before an Alderman, charging her betrayer with seduction, fornication and bastardy. For the present we suppress names.

Melch vs. Melch—Settled and Unsettled.

Andrew Melch, whose arrest for assault and battery, on oath of his wife Elizabeth Melch, we noticed yesterday, was before Alderman Morrow yesterday for a hearing. The matter was settled by mutual consent, and the costs paid by the defendant. The parties went home to Pitt township, but very soon Mrs. Melch returned and renewed her suit, she alleging that on their return home her husband had forgotten his vows of good behavior, and had pitched in anew, assaulting her, and breaking up the furniture. Another warrant was issued, but Mrs. Melch after a new conference with her husband at home, concluded that the matter was not worth pushing, and again visited the magistrate's office and withdrew the suit. So, at present, stands the case of Melch vs. Melch.

Annual Election of the Board of Health.

The annual election of the officers of the Board of Health took place on Thursday, at the Health Office. The result of the election was as follows:

President—David Fitzsimmons vice James Chambers. Secretary—John Wilson. Health Officer—George Fortune. Assistant Health Officer—J. B. Williams. Physician, Dr. A. G. McCandless.

The Board as at present constituted is composed of the following members: David Fitzsimmons, James Chambers, David Hutchinson, James McCune, Dr. James King, Henry Hays, holding over, and J. M. Wilson, Joseph Kaye and Samuel McKee, newly elected.

A Ruined Wardrobe.—Mary Ann Moore, who some time ago worked for Mrs. S. Uhler and her sister Mary, in the Eighth ward, yesterday morning made information before Alderman Lynch, charging her former employers with malicious mischief. She alleges that some time ago she was obliged to be absent, and on going away left her clothing at the place where she had worked. When she returned she found that her clothing had been damaged and some of it entirely destroyed, as she alleges, by the defendants. The accused were arrested and held to bail for a hearing.

Wholesale and Retail Buyers of Dry Goods are respectfully invited to examine the stock of new spring goods, at Erwin McConnell & Co.'s, Allegheny. The stock will be found very full and complete in every particular, and at remarkably low prices. Erwin McConnell & Co., 178 Federal street, Allegheny.

The Fair at City Hall continues to attract a full attendance nightly. There is also a growing interest in the amusements and in the pleasant manner in which all is conducted. To-night that fine silver tea sett will go off.

Common Pleas.—Before Judge Sterritt. In the case of John M. Fulton vs. J. Herron Foster, the jury returned a verdict in favor of plaintiff for the sum of $70,28. The amount claimed was $700.

Committed.—Alderman Johns yesterday committed to jail for trial at Court, Daniel Albright, charged on oath of Robert C. Donaldson with surety of the peace.

Arrested on Process.—Edward F. Magin, was yesterday arrested on a process issued by the Court for non-payment of costs.

District Court.—This Court was not in session yesterday, having adjourned over until Monday.

STREET ETIQUETTE.

It would be lamentable indeed if the adage, "what people are in their houses they are on the streets," were strictly true, as street manners, in large cities particularly, are far below the level of what is current in well-bred society. Unfortunately out-door contact has a deleterious effect upon people generally, unless they are well enveloped in a coat-of-mail to resist the bad influences which fill our streets. Society requires a strict adherence to certain forms, by which the courtesies of life to each other are strictly observed, and any lack of those elements of character, becomes a bar to its enjoyment in well regulated circles. It is well that society has objections to enforce and places restrictions upon those who disregard them. It is by such laws accepted everywhere, that the equilibrium of society is maintained and people are elevated to the higher walks of personal culture.

Singular to state that withal the rigidity of the laws of society in-doors, people generally in mingling with the common herd, almost imperceptibly lose that "jealous care" for what they do and say. The better nature of man seems to relax, and unless they are well upon their guard, will find themselves imperceptibly yielding to the pressure around them. The eye as well as the tongue is apt to be unrestrained, and free range is too frequently allowed to both. Sensitive natures are exposed to rudeness, which may in time be blunted and destroyed entirely. Example is so powerful that street etiquette is demoralizing. Men see and hear things on public thoroughfares which rarely enter the threshold of their homes. Evil persons roam up and down our sidewalks with impunity, who, by their misconduct, are ruled outside of the pale of good society. Much of the youthful depravity which everywhere is manifested, is, we fear, the result of street education. The first steps to sin and wrong-doing may be traced to the unbridled license of street-lore.

A portion of every community necessarily are on the streets, and those who are engaged in some avocation, are less liable to its pernicious influences. This is well, but there is a large class of persons whose views are, that they are entitled to a living, even if acquired through the labors of others. Work is not in their vocabulary; but rather they hang as an incubus on others. These idle persons are in many instances the fruitage of the rum and gambling saloons and places of amusement of low grade. The ragged ends of the woof of society who lay around loose at our street corners, loiter about public buildings, liquor saloon doors, theatres, wharves, depots, etc., are the street idlers. These folk are the product of licensed iniquities. It is this class of persons who pollute the atmosphere with their presence, vile slang and wicked actions. This fact is an irresistible argument against the licensing of places where pestilential people are manufactured.

This army of useless members of community tend greatly to abridge the good name of our city. And yet it should not be so. The virtuous and the good should counteract the pernicious influences of these fellows of the baser sort. It is a painful fact that, however numerous the means may be employed by the parent or ward in regulating the morals of those under them while in-doors, whenever they cross the threshhold and mingle in the activities of life, the barriers are in danger of being either lifted gradually or, in too many instances, removed entirely. The pure and virtuous of the "gentler sex" are often forced to blush as they thread their way through the streets. Either vulgar remarks salute their ears, or open insult is offered, and they are stared at with criminal impunity.

It is surprising how little attention is given to proper street manners, even by those who are educated to observe the rules of good breeding. Men jostle each other, without the slightest compunction of feeling. Even ladies are not awarded what is reasonably due to them on the sidewalk. Were there more attention paid to the rules of right upon the sidewalk and street crossings, there would be fewer instances of colliding. Every one ought to know that each pedestrian should keep to the right in crossing a street or passing along a sidewalk. In New York, the crowds which throng Broadway, and other streets of a similar character, are compelled to observe this rule. Here, now and then, you will find a person studiously keeping in his place. The neglect of this precaution makes it especially unpleasant to ladies who are rudely jostled aside and their crinoline sadly battered by the boorish fellows who go swinging along without reason or sense on our sidewalks. Let the well-bred, cultivated persons of this community resolve to carry out this rule, and those with weak and uncultivated minds will be forced into its observance by stern public opinion.

People laugh at the Puritan notions of New England, especially in reference to the blue laws once in vogue "down east," which prohibited persons from smoking cigars on the streets, and laws of a similar character. It would be well there were some kind of laws, to prevent the liberty so many take of puffing and spitting the vile stuff in use now-a-days. The villainous compound of which cigars are composed of these days are so offensive that those who use the article actually pollute the already impure atmosphere. There are some persons, however, who use the weed, who are so careful to observe the rules of good breeding, that instead of annoying their neighbors on the sidewalk, gratify their unnatural cravings by seeking the quiet of retirement. People may have the right to indulge in such bad habits, but they have no right to puff in other people's faces and outrage the privileges of others.

The evil elements of society, though they may not be permitted to infringe upon municipal ordinances strictly speaking, should be controlled and their strict conduct regulated by a public opinion, which rises even higher than civil laws. Evil disposed persons do not refrain from criminal acts because certain laws regulate such things, but, in a great measure at least, public opinion and the moral status of a community keep such persons under surveillance. Let a community be indifferent to pure morals and proper breeding, and how quickly will law and order be trampled under foot by the lawless ones of a community. While it is in direct conflict with the laws of the Commonwealth to curse and swear on the streets, who takes the trouble to have such persons arrested and fined? The obscenity we hear from these street black-guards, in their observations to each other, and within the sound of ladies who are passing them—the wives, sisters or daughters of the virtuous—go unrebuked, and what is said of them and in their hearing may chance to be directed to your wife or sister.

It is time the license taken on the streets, under the impression that the people of this country are at liberty to do as they please without let or hindrance, should be put under ban of public opinion, and then let the well-bred and cultivated lead the way to a proper reform of the evils which now curse our large cities. It is not necessary to go beyond our city, as there is abundant room for improvement here. Let us, in seeking to purify the body politic, remember that we and those who surround our hearthstones shall richly profit in the improvement proposed.

THE DRAYTONS AND THE DAVENANTS.

DODD, of New York, the publisher of the excellent works of Mrs. CHARLES, the author of "Chronicles of the Schonberg Cotta Family," Diary of Kitty Trevylyan," etc., has just issued a volume entitled "The Draytons and the Davenants," by this gifted lady, who has won an enviable reputation for the sterling qualities of her writings, and for promoting, through this medium, the interests of the evangelical religion. The scene of her narrative is the history of the terrible conflict between Charles the First and the Parliament in 1637—48, which led to the execution of the King, and the Protectorate of Cromwell. The Draytons are a family of the middle class of the Puritan stock. The Davenants are royalists of the strictest sort. The story of this terrible struggle is represented in the journals of the daughters of the respective houses. Wide apart as their interests were in the strife, the two girls, representatives of the respective houses, were bound together in the dearest tie of friendship. Quaint as the expressions are of the character of the Puritan stock, there is a beauty of words and religious fervor expressed, which gives great zest to the story. While it is evident the sympathies of the fair authoress are with the party whose battle-cry was "God with us," yet such are her powers of impersonation that she divests herself in a great measure of partiality. We would like to give a passage, from the death bed scene of Lady Davenant, depicting her last moments, full of tenderness and beauty. The work is well gotten up, and makes the fifth volume of the series.

OUR GUESTS.

Our distinguished guests, the members of the State Legislature, accompanied by many of our prominent citizens, yesterday visited the House of Refuge and Dixmont Hospital. The Legislators were unanimous in their praise and admiration of those excellent philanthropic institutions, and freely pledged their friendship and support towards both in the future. To-day the party will visit the Penitentiary, several of the Homes and Hospitals in this neighborhood and probably the more prominent Orphan Asylums. In the evening the majority of our visitors will return to Harrisburg, their mission having been accomplished, and will doubtless bear with them improved opinions of the western section of the State, the character of its public institutions and the hospitality of our citizens.

MEETING OF BUSINESS MEN.

His Honor, W. C. McCARTHY, Mayor of the city, publishes in another column a call for a public meeting of citizens, to be held at the Board of Trade Rooms on Wednesday evening next. The object of the meeting, the consideration of the proposed action of the Legislature in reference to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, is one of vital importance to all interested in the welfare of the city, and the call should be responded to by full attendance.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The people of Chicago want to vote on the Sunday law.

—Stupid people may eat, but shouldn't talk. Their mouths may do very well as banks of deposit, but not of issue.—Exchange.

—A London letter says: "Strange things do get into men's brains sometimes, but the strangest of all were taken from the brain of a man who died suddenly this week. The doctor's official report, after a post mortem examination, states that, to his astonishment, he found two pieces of ice inside the skull, upon the substance of the brain. The faculty are discussing and theorizing upon the marvellous fact."

—Those who watch Napoleon most narrowly, pretend to see signs of another grand stroke on his part to recover his prestige, lost by his failure in Mexico and his supineness in the recent German war. In this view the following from the Augsburg Gazette, becomes significant: "It is a matter of public notoriety that the territorial compensations claimed by France have not been withdrawn, and that the day when France will deem proper to press them is perhaps not far distant."

—A meerschaum pipe, manufactured in America, and to be sent to the Paris Exhibition, is on exhibition in a neighboring city. It is eleven inches in length, and the amber mouthpiece eight inches long and two inches thick. The carving on the trunk represents the meeting of Macbeth and Banquo with the witches, on their way from the battle field. The figures and horses are four inches in height. Surmounting the bowl Shakspeare is seated in a chair, looking down upon the scene.

—Some of our religious papers exhibit a shocking familiarity with Him before whom all the earth is commanded to "keep silence." Here is a specimen: "A beloved pastor in Indiana writes that he is determined to put the Journal and Messenger in the hand of every new convert that the Lord may give to his ministry. He says if the Lord will give the converts, and we will send the paper, the two shall be brought together. The Lord never fails, and we will try to do our part."

This is eminently "business-like."

—Greece has a free government, a free press, vote by ballot and universal, or, rather, manhood suffrage. In every village there is a free school; in many towns there are free colleges, and they are open on equal terms to all the citizens. The system of education is one of the most perfect in Europe. An English writer, in a review of the progress of Greece, sarcastically refers to the negative virtues of Grecian rule: "In Greece there is no privileged or titled aristocracy. There are no game laws, no rich livings, no over-paid parsons and starving curates, no pocket parliamentary boroughs."

—The eying of women by women, says the Galaxy, is one of the most offensive manifestations of superciliousness now to be met with in society. Few observant persons can have failed to notice the manner in which one woman, who is not perfectly well bred or perfectly kind-hearted, will eye over another woman, who, she thinks, is not in such good society, and, above all, not, at the time being, in so costly a dress as she herself is in. It is done everywhere—at parties, at church, in the street. It is done by vulgar women in all conditions of life. The very servant girls learn it of their mistresses.

Has Anybody Heard a Glacier Explode at Niagara Falls.

The London Engineer, in the course of a discussion of the fervent heat with which the elements composing the interior of the globe are supposed to be kept in a continual state of fusion, introduces the following story, which has been going the rounds of the French papers, all of which seemed to absorb it with edifying credulity as worth the careful attention of scientific men:

"Not far from the Falls of Niagara was a glacier, belonging to a company who realized enormous profits by the sale of the ice in the Western cities during the summer months. A few days later than the Aspinwall explosion an aurora borealis of magnificent proportions was observed wheeling its shafts several nights in succession in the northern sky, causing two lightning conductors on the top of the glacier (!) to emit long electrical flames of a bluish color. In the meantime a boiling noise was heard inside the glacier, accompanied with a disengagement of gas and occasional loud detonations. A Captain of militia ventured to enter an opening in the ice with a light, when the glacier burst with an explosion that shook the whole country. Happily no one was killed except the unfortunate Captain of whom not a trace could be found. The glacier contained 16,000 tons of ice, and after the explosion there was a fall of lukewarm water over a space of 500 yards in diameter. The theory of the cause of the explosion is that the two lightning conductors of the glacier acted under the influence of the electricity as the two poles of a voltaic battery, and decomposed the ice into a mixture of oxygen and hydrogen gases, which of course exploded with resistless power on the introduction of a light."

—The Postoffice Department has made arrangements by which mails will be forwarded from this country to Europe, and from Europe to the United States, on one additional day of each week, on and after Thursday, the 21st of March next, when a vessel of the Bremen line will leave New York with the extra mail, and on and after the 2d of April (Tuesday), when the new arrangement goes into effect from Southampton, England. After the dates above mentioned, Thursday will be the regular sailing day of the Bremen steamship line from New York, and on Tuesdays the vessels will touch at Southampton on their return. This change will increase the number of European mails to three every week.

IN Syria a Moslem husband and father was greatly grieved that his wife had four successive years presented him with four daughters, and finally told her that he should regard the birth of another daughter a sufficient ground for divorce. The next month (November) the poor woman gave birth to four daughters at once. The husband was paralyzed with amazement, and regarding this event as a signal judgment of God upon him for his previous harshness to his wife, told her that he would forgive her, and not carry out his threat of divorce.

—The "Franklin" lines of telegraph, extending to Portland, Maine, and the "Bankers' and Brokers' lines south, connecting with Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, have again reduced their rates of toll between all intermediate points.

SPREAD THE TRUTH.

Some medical men insist that it is undignified to advertise a remedy, however valuable it may be. Queer reasoning this. It is like saying that an article which the world needs should be hid in a corner—that benefits and blessings may be too widely diffused—that the means of protecting and restoring health should be a close monopoly, and not accessible to all. The argument is bad. It is worse than that; it is inhuman. Suppose HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—an absolute specific for dyspepsia, biliousness and nervous debility—had never been known beyond the repertoire of the faculty, what would have been the consequence? Instead of curing and invigorating millions, the good effects of the preparation would have been confined to a comparative few. There is the highest authority for saying that light should not be hid under a bushel; that whatever is excellent should be placed as a city on a hill, where all men can take cognizance of it. It is upon the principle that the BITTERS have been advertised and continue to be advertised in every newspaper of any prominence in the western hemisphere, and that the spontaneous testimonials in its favor have been translated into all written languages. Thousands enjoy perfect health to-day who would be languishing on beds of sickness if the newspapers had not spread the truth with regard to this unequaled invigorant and corrective far and wide. Suppose profit has been reaped from this publicity. Is that any argument against it? If the public health has been protected; if lives have been saved; if the feeble have been strengthened and the sick restored, great good has been accomplished; and who so mean as to grudge to exertions thus directed their fair reward?

PENNSYLVANIA

STATE LOAN.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN OF

$23,000,000.

AN ACT

To Create a Loan

FOR THE REDEMPTION OF

The Over-Due Bonds of the Commonwealth.

WHEREAS, The bonds of the Commonwealth, and certain certificates of indebtedness, amounting to twenty-three millions of dollars, have been over due and unpaid for some time past;

And Whereas, It is desirable that the same should be paid, and withdrawn from the market; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer be, and are hereby, authorized and empowered to borrow, on the faith of the Commonwealth, in such amounts and with such notice, (not less than forty days) as they may deem most expedient for the interests of the State, twenty-three millions of dollars, and issue certificates of loan or bonds of the Commonwealth for the same, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first of February and first of August, in the City of Philadelphia, which certificates of loan or bonds shall not be subject to any taxation whatever, for State, municipal or local purposes, and shall be payable as follows, namely: Five millions of dollars payable at any time after five years and within ten years: eight millions of dollars, payable at any time after ten years and within fifteen years, and ten millions of dollars at any time after fifteen years and within twenty-five years; and shall be signed by the Governor and State Treasurer, and countersigned by the Auditor General and registered in the books of the Auditor General, and to be transferable on the books of the Commonwealth, at the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank of Philadelphia; the proceeds of the whole of which loan, including premiums, et cetera, received on the same, shall be applied to the payment of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 2. The bids for the said loan shall be opened in the presence of the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, and awarded to the highest bidder: Provided, That no certificate hereby authorized to be issued, shall be negotiated for less than its par value.

SEC. 3. The bonds of the State and certificates of indebtedness, now over due, shall be receivable in payment of the said loan, under such regulations as the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer may prescribe; and every bidder for the loan, now authorized to be issued, shall state in his bid whether the same is payable in cash or in the bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 4. That all trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, agents, treasurers, committees, or other persons, holding in a fiduciary capacity, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the State or moneys, are hereby authorized to bid for the loan hereby authorized to be issued, and to surrender the bonds or certificates of loan held by them at the time of making such bid, and to receive the bonds authorized to be issued by this act.

SEC. 5. Any person or persons standing in the fiduciary capacity stated in the fourth section of this act, who may desire to invest money in their hands for the benefit of the trust, may, without any order of court, invest the same in the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, at a rate of premium not exceeding twenty per centum.

SEC. 6. That from and after the passage of this act, all the bonds of this Commonwealth shall be paid off in the order of their maturity.

SEC. 7. That all loans of this Commonwealth, not yet due, shall be exempt from State, municipal or local taxation, after the interest due February first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, shall have been paid.

SEC. 8. That all existing laws, or portions thereof, inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

JOHN P. GLASS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
L. W. HALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven
JOHN W. GEARY.

In accordance with the provision of the above act of Assembly, sealed proposals will be received at the office of the State Treasurer, in the city of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, until 12 o'clock, M., of the 1st day of April, A. D., 1867, to be endorsed as follows: "Proposals for Pennsylvania State Loan," Treasury Department, Harrisburg, Penn'a, U. S. A.

Bids will be received for $5,000,000, reimbursable in Five years and payable in Ten years; $8,000,000 reimbursable in Ten years and payable in Fifteen years; and $10,000,000 reimbursable in Fifteen years and payable in Twenty-Five years. The rate of interest to be either 5 or 6 per cent, per annum, which must be explicitly stated in the bid, and the bids most advantageous to the State will be accepted. No bid for less than par will be considered. The bonds will be issued in sums of $50, and such higher sums as desired by the loaners, to be free from State, local and municipal taxes.

The over due bonds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be received at par in payment of this loan, but bidders must state whether they intend to pay in cash or in the over due loans aforesaid.

No distinction will be made between bidders paying in cash or over-due loans.

JOHN W. GEARY,
Governor of Pennsylvania.
JOHN F. HARTRANFT,
Auditor General.
W. H. KEMBLE,
State Treasurer.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1867.

Last Words.

We published an account, a few days since, of the conviction and execution of Haddopp, at Norristown, in this State, for murder. He was found guilty upon circumstantial evidence of the clearest and most convincing character. A full account of the scenes at the execution says:

Haddopp was dressed in blue pantaloons and white shirt. The usual Catholic ceremonies were performed with him—the divines being on his left and the sheriff on his right. During the ceremony Haddopp kept continually kissing a cross, which was suspended around his neck.

After this he arose and stepped to the front, and delivered the following remarks in a clear, distinct and loud voice, so that he could be heard at some distance:

"DEAR BRETHREN: I stand on the verge of eternity. It is hard I must die thus innocently; but it is easy to so die. I will not do evil for evil, but, rather good for the evil that has been done me. I forgive, with all my heart, those who have injured me. Dear brethren; I hope we will meet in a better and world. Praise to Jesus Christ. Amen."

Then turning to the Sheriff he said; "I am ready."

Rev. Kuntzer to him: "Have courage."

Prisoner. "It is courageous with me. Father, in Thy hands I commend my spirit. Jesus, Maria, Joseph, be my helper. Amen."

Mr. Kuntzer, in a low tone of voice. "Now is the time for a confession."

Prisoner. "I am innocent."

The clergy then bade him farewell, and Mr. E. N. Beysher, the Sheriff, proceeded to pinion his hands. At this time Haddopp handed him the following lines on a piece of paper:

"Loving brothers, love each other;
Love each other as a brother;
Farewell, forever farewell to eternity,
In Heaven we will see each other."

At the bottom of this was, "My last words you will find in the Philadelphia Democrat."

This document, "last words," the Prison Inspectors have refused to deliver to the editor of the Democrat. It is supposed to reflect strongly on the Inspectors.

Washington County Items.

In Somerset township last week, most of the persons attending the Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening, were robbed by a graceless scamp of their blankets, shawls, sleigh bells, &c.

A little child in West Finley township, left alone in the house by its mother, pulled over a kettle of boiling water, and was scalded to death.

The Rev. C. Herron, pastor of the Chartiers Cross Roads, U. P. Church, has determined to remove with a colony from his own church, and to locate at Lawrence, Kansas.

Some time since we published an account of the alleged poisoning of a man named Weeks, at California, and the committal of a woman to prison for the crime. The intestines of the deceased were taken to the office of Dr. N. W. Truxal, who proposed to give them a chemical examination. Some nights since the intestines were feloniously taken from the premises of Dr. T., and have not since been found. The disappearance of this evidence of guilt, if any existed, will doubtless embarrass the case.

The receipts of the county for the year were $149,480 15, and the outlay $85,389 42.

Soldiers' Orphans' Homestead.

General Meade has written a letter warmly approving and commending the objects sought to be attained by the Soldiers' Orphans' Homestead at Gettysburg. In concluding his eloquent letter, the General says:

"I do not think it can be necessary to argue with any one the necessity of caring for the orphans of our fallen soldiers. It is, however, proper, when appealing to the loyal and patriotic, to show why this duty devolves on us as individuals and citizens, arising from the fact that the National Government makes no provision whatever for orphans, beyond the pension drawn in the name of the father. And, although the State Government has acted most liberal, and has provided for a large number, yet so great were the casualties of the war, there remain large numbers to be cared for by private means. I therefore hail with great satisfaction, every new institution that is created, for I am satisfied there is work and more than work enough for all. In this behalf, I must urgently recommend your Homestead at Gettysburg to all those who are able to give in aid of it, assuring them their money will be well appropriated, and devoted to the best advantage in your Institution."

Plowing by Steam.

Among the patents issued recently, was one to Thomas S. Minniss, of Meadville, Pa. for a locomotive for plowing, towing boats and travelling on common roads. After an experience of several years of prairie farming, Mr. Minniss determined to make a steam plow and for fifteen years has never faltered in his cherished endeavor to accomplish this end. And now after failures and disappointments innumerable, he has at last got the broad seal of the Patent office upon an invention which if it accomplish one-half that he claims for it, will certainly rank among the great inventions of the age. The locomotive, unlike any thing before it, crawls over the ground with an unbroken bearing surface the whole length and breadth of the machine, and adapting itself to the inequalities of the surface like the belly of the serpent, which the parts in their appearance and movements somewhat resemble, and instead of being called an iron-horse might more appropriately be called an iron hoop-snake. It is under perfect control, is guided with ease and certainty, and runs as well in one direction as the other.

A Dangerous Blockade.

Almost any kind of house in the city can be blockaded with less inconvenience and downright danger to the community than the engine houses. Anything that puts the brakes on the steam fire engines in a city so liable to conflagration as Pittsburgh, is perilous in the extreme, and should be remedied. We observed yesterday noon that the ice in the alleys off Third street, in the neighborhood of the Vigilance Engine House, had been cut out and thrown into Third street in a pile directly in front of the engine house, so that the engine could not be got out at all, or only with great danger of upsetting, until the pile is removed. The attention of the Street Commissioner is respectfully called to the matter.

City Mortality.

The following were the interments in this city, as reported by Dr. George L. McCook, from January 27th to February 3d:

Fyphoid Fever, 5; Abscess of Pelvis, 1; Disease of Heart, 1; Apoplexy, 1; Chronic Bronchitis, 1; Consumption, 2; Variola, 1; Spinal Meningitis, 1; Lockjaw, 1; Typhoid Fever, 4; Pneumonia, 2; Whooping Cough, 2; Still Born, 1.

Of the above there were: Under 1 year, 3; from 1 to 2, 1; from 2 to 5, 1; from 5 to 10, 2; from 10 to 15, 1; from 15 to 20, 3; from 20 to 30 3; from 30 to 40, 3; from 40 to 50, 4; from 50 to 60, 2. Males, 9; Females, 14; White, 19; Colored, 4; Total, 23.

Accident to a Milk Cart.

Yesterday morning a milk cart, while being driven along Second street, at the corner of Smithfield, ran the wheels of one side into a deep gutter and the wagon careened upon its side, one of the horses falling into the same pitfall, also tumbled over upon his side, and lay until extricated. Much ado was necessary in order to rescue the animal from his unpleasant situation, and also to straighten up the wagon. Both purposes were ultimately accomplished, however, and the equipage went on without having sustained any serious damage.

A Scolding Match.—Mrs. Mary Maloney and Mrs. Mary Broderick reside at the Point, on Duquesne street, and are neighbors. It would appear that the very best of neighborly feeling does not exist between them, and they do not live in entire Christian harmony. Yesterday morning the "unpleasantness" between them culminated in a regular old-fashioned scolding match, hot, vigorous and emphatic. Mrs. Broderick obtained the last word, made Mrs. Maloney, greatly exasperated, made information for disorderly conduct against her before Mayor McCarthy. The accused was arrested by officer Barry and fined three dollars and costs.

Tow Boat Sunk.—Some time during Thursday night the steam tow boat Traveller, lying by the Parkersburg wharf boat, in the Monongahela river below the bridge, sunk at her moorings. The cause of the accident is not definitely ascertained, but it is supposed that another steamer which came up beside her during the night staved in the sides of the sunken boat. The Traveller was mostly used for towing in the rivers about the cities. At the time of sinking she was heavily laden with coal. It is feared that she will prove a total loss.

Railroad Taxation.—The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company propose to pay hereafter to the State of West Virginia one mill per mile on each passenger, if by so doing they will be released from all additional taxation. Or, in other words, in lieu of the regular tax of 40 cents on the hundred dollars valuation of their property, they propose to lump the whole business and compromise it by paying the mill per mile as aforesaid, which they estimate will yield the State a revenue of $20,000 per annum.

Fatal Accident.—On Sunday, the 3d inst., while the westward freight train on the P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. was near Columbiana, Geo. Stidger, a brakeman employed on the road, and son of John Stidger, Esq., late of Canton, Ohio, fell between the cars and was instantly killed. His friends were at once telegraphed, and his father, now in California, informed of the sad catastrophe. The funeral took place at Alliance the 4th instant, where the deceased, who was lately married leaves a wife to mourn his untimely fate.

Conference Meeting.—The Pittsburgh Conference of the M. E. Church, will meet in Massillon, early in March, and will be in session about one week. Bishop Thompson will preside. Something like three hundred ministers will be present.

Mill Burned.—On Friday morning, the 1st inst., about four o'clock, the steam grist mill belonging to Alexander Campbell, in Concord township, Butler county, with about one thousand bushels of wheat, was destroyed by fire. Loss, $6,000.

Committee Meeting at the Board of Trade Rooms.

Yesterday morning, at eleven o'clock, the committee appointed by the Board of Trade to attend the St. Louis Convention, met at their rooms.

The meeting was opened by calling R. C. Gray to the Chair, who announced the business of the meeting.

George H. Anderson, Esq., submitted the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously agreed upon:

WHEREAS, The Board of Trade of this city was invited to send a delegation of twenty-five to represent Pittsburgh in the Great River Improvement Convention, to be held in St. Louis, on Tuesday, the 12th inst.

WHEREAS, The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad has tendered, without solicitation, to said delegates free transportation to and from any point on its road, and also a special car for the exclusive use of its delegates, be it

Resolved, That this Committee of the Board of Trade of Pittsburgh notes with great satisfaction the public spirit displayed by the officers of said railroad company in thus putting out of view all prejudices supposed to exist between railway and river carriage, for the purpose of advancing the general interests of the public, and also that the thanks of this committee be respectfully tendered to those officers for their courtesy.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Board of Trade hand a copy of these resolutions to the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company.

The following is a list of delegates who express their desire to attend the Convention:

Geo. H. Thurston, Capt. R. C. Gray, Levi Matthews, Robt. J. Anderson, W. H. Brown, Jacob Reese, G. H. Anderson, Geo. L. Rice, R. F. Smythe, Allen Kirkpatrick, Hugh M. Bole, Wm. Crawford, Jr., Jos. M. Knap, A. D. Smith, Wm. F. Lang, W. M. Beltzhoover, Wm. G. Hawkins, Capt. Sam. Sherman, J. Batchelor, David M'Candless, B. F. Jones, Bateman Goe, N. J. Bigley.

On motion of George H. Anderson, Esq., a committee of five were appointed to prepare business resolutions for the wants of the delegation. The Chair appointed George H. Thurston, Joseph M. Knap, A. D. Smith, Wm. Crawford, and R. C. Gray.

On motion, it was agreed to start to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock by the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad.

On motion, adjourned.

Oil Matters.

The Titusville Herald, of Thursday, says: The well on lease No. 27, of the Skinner Farm, is testing. The well on lease No. 36, of the Foster Farm, is testing. A new well was struck yesterday on No. 35½ of the Foster Farm. It is called the McCaslin well, and is pumping about fifty barrels of 47 gravity oil per day. The working interest is partly owned by Messrs. McCaslin and Case. Well No. 4, on lease No. 35 of the Stephenson Farm, is testing. A new well is testing on the Dean Refinery lease of the Bennehoff Farm. It commenced pumping oil in a small stream on Monday. The new well on lease No. 6, of the Shoe and Leather Petroleum Company's tract of the Foster Farm, has been cleaned out and is now pumping about eighty barrels per day. The land interest is owned by the Shoe and Leather Petroleum Company, and the working interest by the Harris Oil Company. The Niagara Well, on Western Run, has been abandoned. The tubing and casing were drawn on Monday. It was owned by Messrs. Hill and Bliss. The McAninch well, on Western Run, ceased producing on Sunday evening. The tube is being drawn and a new valve is to be put in. The Queen of the Bluff well, Lease No. 1 of the Benninghoff Farm, has been cleaned and is being re-tubed. The Union wells, on Western Run, owned by the Union Oil Company have been shut down for about three weeks. The Blakely well, on the Webster Lease of the Benninghoff Farm, on the Western Run is now producing about sixty barrels per day. The production of the Equator well on Lease No. 2 of the Bennehoff Farm has run down within the last two weeks from eighty to forty barrels per day. The shipments over the Oil Creek Railroad for the month ending January 31, reached in round numbers about 68,000 barrels. Two hundred thousand barrels oil tankage has been constructed at Tidioute and vicinity.

Arsenal Appropriation.—The Army Appropriation Bill contains the following items: Pittsburgh arsenal, $34,000; arsenal and armory at Rock Island, $686,000; Columbus arsenal, $139,000; Indianapolis arsenal, $169,000; Leavenworth arsenal, $15,000.

BUSINESS CHANGES.

DISSOLUTION OF CO-PARTNERSHIP.

THE CO-PARTNERSHIP heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the name of HANNA, HART & CO., was dissolved by mutual consent on the 1st of January, 1867, the interest of Joshua Hanna having been purchased by WM. K. HART and C. P. CAUGHEY, who will continue in the Banking business at the same stand, corner of Third and Wood streets, under the name and style of

HART, CAUGHEY & CO.

JOSHUA HANNA,
WM. K. HART,
C. P. CAUGHEY.

In retiring from the firm of Hanna, Hart & Co. (owing to personal and private engagements requiring my whole attention in the East,) I take pleasure in recommending the new firm of Hart, Caughey & Co. to that liberal patronage heretofore enjoyed by the late firm.

DISSOLUTION.

THE COPARTNERSHIP HERETOFORE existing between the undersigned, under the firm name of D. FAWCETT & CO., in the "Oregon Brewery," was dissolved by mutual consent on the twelfth (12) inst. The business of the firm will be settled at the Brewery by ISAAC BURTON, late clerk of the firm, who is authorised to use the name of the firm to wind up the business.

DAVID FAWCETT,
JOSEPH F. HAIGH.

Pittsburgh, January 18th, 1867.

Having sold our entire Brewery, Malting and Hop Business to Messrs. PIER, DANNALS & CO., we would request from our friends a continuance of the so liberally bestowed upon us during the number of years we were in the business. We have no hesitation in recommending the new firm, as from their long experience in the business we have no doubt but they will maintain the excellence of our Ale.

D. FAWCETT & CO.

Referring to the above, we would inform the public that we shall endeavor to merit a continuance of the liberal patronage enjoyed by the late firm of D. Fawcett & Co., and from our experience in the business, can safely say that we will be able to give entire satisfaction to those who may favor us with their orders.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—A Farm of about 58 acres in Union Township, Allegheny county, Pa., situate about four miles from the city on the Washington Pike. The improvements are a large two story Brick Dwelling House with 12 rooms, a two-story Spring House, a Carriage House, a large Lumber Room, a No. 1 Frame Bank Barn, with stabling sufficient for 50 head of cattle. There is a fine Young Orchard, comprising about 12 acres, stocked with the best varieties of fruit trees. It is all underlaid with coal. The land is in a high state of cultivation, well watered, fences good, and would suit admirably for dairy or gardening purposes.

Also, 17½ acres adjoining the above, with a good Frame House, Carriage House, good Spring House and other out-buildings; with a good Orchard in fine bearing condition. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.

Also, 12 acres adjoining the above, unimproved, for sale low. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.

The above three pieces of property lie between the Little Saw Mill Run and Steubenville Railroads, and the coal can be reached easily from either road. The coal alone is worth all that is asked for the entire property.

Also Farm of 173 acres, situate in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., immediately on the line of the Penna. Railroad. The improvements are a two-story Frame House with five rooms and good cellar, a Frame Bank Barn, 40x60 feet, and other out-buildings. There is on the place a good Young Apple Orchard; 120 acres cleared, balance in good timber; fencing generally good, well watered; underlaid with coal and limestone; convenient to churches, mills, schools and blacksmith shops, together with the personal property such as stock, implements, grain in the ground, &c. Possession given immediately.

For further particulars, enquire of

no7 Real Estate Agent, 164 Fourth street.

FOR SALE—A Farm of 250 acres, all under good fence, cleared and in fine order, balance in good sized white oak and hickory timber, with most of underbrush cleared out; well watered and partly underlaid with a two foot vein of coal; good frame house, two barns, wagon sheds, corn cribs, pig pens, spring house, and about fourteen acres of choice fruit, different qualities. In this there is no waste land—all can be worked with ease. Situated in Beaver county, Pa., three miles from Rochester Station, and twenty-seven miles from Pittsburgh. Price $60 per acre.

Coal works, now in successful operation; daily production 10,000 bushels, situate on Monongahela river, in pool No. 2.

Small Farm, 40 acres, well improved, 1½ miles from Livermore Station, on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, in Indiana county, and only 35 miles from the city, all for $2,000.

Three acres in Duquesne Borough; no improvements; suitable for all kinds of small fruit growing.

One hundred acres good farm land, four acres cleared, good springs, and timber for fencing and building; four miles from Altoona, in Blair county, Pa.; good road to same; all for $1,600.

Ninety-two acres in Fayette township, 50 of which is coal; all fenced; house, barn, orchard, &c.

Several Brick and Frame Houses in Allegheny, one in Freeport.

Six Lots, 33 by 120 feet, in Wilkinsburg. Price $450—$100 cash, balance on time to suit purchaser. This is a rare chance for persons of small means, as the lots are only about two hundred yards from the station, they are cheap. Terms easy, and we want to sell them.

JOHN CROFT,
ja11 Real Estate Agent, 139 Fourth street.

FOR SALE,

A COUNTRY RESIDENCE,

AT SHADY SIDE,

On the PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD, within 20 minutes ride from the city. The house is entirely new, substantially built, convenient in its arrangements, and tastefully ornamented inside and out. It has hot and cold water, and gas fixtures throughout. It occupies a commanding site on a lot of five acres, part of which is the original forest, the remainder being well adapted for fruits and vegetables. There is a thrifty orchard of dwarf trees.

The surroundings are all attractive, consisting of private residences of like character.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST AND THIRD PAGES

Amusements.

OPERA.—At the New Opera House the Strakosch Opera Troupe will render this afternoon at a grand fashionable matinee, the "Barber of Seville," and to-night they will conclude their highly successful engagement here, with the rendition of the ever popular opera of Norma. These will be the last opportunities here this season for visiting the Opera, and all who have not yet been there, should attend.

FAKIR OF VISHNU.—This eminent gentleman who approaches in our imagination at least, nearer to his Satanic Majesty, judging from his wonderful tricks, than any other living mortal, takes his departure this evening. He gives a farewell matinee this afternoon and performance to-night at Masonic Hall. We commend him and his gentlemanly, high toned and honorable business manager, Mr. Tyndal to our brethren of the Western press. They will find the Fakir no ordinary showman, and his agent a clever, obliging gentleman.

THEATRE COMIQUE.—A good bill is offered at the matinee this evening at this place of amusement, and to-night the attraction is so powerful that a large house is inevitable.

COMING.—Prof. McAllister, the world renowned wizard, is coming.

Fell from a Third Story Window.—A young man named Joseph Greenough, a resident of Lawrenceville, while sitting in one of the third story windows of the Eagle engine house, on Fourth street, yesterday evening, lost his balance and fell to the ground. His fall was broken by striking the telegraph wires, but he was nevertheless badly injured. He was taken to his home.

Great Reduction.—In cassimeres. Patterns and short lengths at 35 per cent. reduction. J. W. Barker & Co., 59 Market street.

Dress Goods.—The balance of our fall and winter stock to closed out, at greatly reduced prices. J. W. Barker & Co., 59 Market street.

Balmoral Skirts.—At greatly reduced prices, at 1,50 and upward, at J. W. Barker & Co.'s, No. 59 Market street.

Another Case.—Of those handsome fast colored prints at 12½c. J. W. Barker & Co., 58 Market street.

One Hundred.—Plaid Wool Long Shawls at $5,00 each J. W. Barker & Co., 59 Market street.

The Tennessee Legislature has resolved on the impeachment of Judge Frazier, of Nashville.

FINANCE AND TRADE,

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, Feb. 8, 1867. }

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 137⅝@137¾; Eighty-one bonds, 108¼; Five Twenties, old 108¾; Five Twenties, '65, 107½; Five Twenties, new, 105; Seven Thirties, 105½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 84⅝; Pittsburgh Fort Wayne & Chicago, 98⅝; Erie, 59⅝; Michigan Southern, 75½; Chicago and North Western, 38; Chicago and North Western preferred, 68½; Chicago and Rock Island, 99; Western Union Telegraph Co., 44⅞; New York Central, 102¼.

—The statement of the public debt on the 1st of February, 1867, shows that the debt bearing coin interest was $1,420,145,541,80; the debt bearing currency interest was $819,672,740; matured debt not presented for payment, $15,794,454 31; and debt bearing no interest, $430,163,893 72, making total debt, $2,685,773,539,83. The amount of coin in the Treasury was $97,354,993 69, and currency $45,089,187 58. Amount of debt, less cash in the Treasury, $2,543,319,748 56—an increase since January 1st of $24,575 92. The coin in the Treasury decreased $486,954 06 during the month of January, while during the same period there was an increase of $11,173,422 54 in currency.

—In noticing the upward movement in the gold premium, the Philadelphia Press says: "The agitation of the impeachment question creates a somewhat uneasy feeling, and large purchases of coin are being made by the importers and others, in anticipation of a high range of the premium. In addition to the existing commercial indebtedness of the country to Europe, the prospect of a larger number of persons than usual going abroad during the present year is not without some influence in sustaining the market, as the inference is that a large amount of specie in the aggregate will have to be exported to meet the wants of these travellers."

—At a meeting of representatives of the national banks of New Jersey, held at Trenton, on Wednesday last, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the national banks of New Jersey, represented in meeting at Trenton, this 30th day of January, 1867, respectfully, but earnestly protest against the passage of the bill now before Congress, known as the Randall bill; that we believe the provisions of such bill to be in violation of the plighted faith of the issue of the United States in the issue of bonds for banking purposes upon loans made to the Government during the darkest hours of the rebellion; and that we further believe it will only tend to further unsettle the great financial interests of the country—a measure uncalled for by any public necessity, and unsanctioned by the interests of the whole people.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, February 8, 1867. }

The operations in produce generally continue very light, being almost entirely of a jobbing or retail character, and round lot transactions are of rare occurrence. Generally speaking, there are no changes in values worthy of notice, though, the tendency is downward.

GRAIN—Wheat is very dull; we continue to quote, in the absence of sales, at $2,55 to $2,60 for No. 1 Spring, and $2,85 to $2,90 for prime Red Winter. Barley is in demand, and No. 1 Spring is selling at 90 to 95. Oats dull; may be quoted at 47 to 48, on track, and 50 to 52, in store. Corn is dull but unchanged; small sales in store, at 78 to 80. Rye is quoted at $1,20 to $1,25.

FLOUR—Continues dull and weak, but unchanged. We continue to quote at $11,50 to $12,25 for fair to well-known standard Spring Wheat brands; $13,50 to $14 for Winter Wheat, and $16 to $17 for fancy St. Louis brands. Rye Flour is selling in a retail way at $7,75 to $8, and Buckwheat at $3,50 to $3,75 per cwt.

PROVISIONS—The demand for Bacon is light, and prices are unchanged at 10½ to 11 for Shoulders, and 15 to 15½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 12½ to 13. There is nothing doing in Mess Pork or Bulk Meat.

BUTTER—Continues in good demand, but the arrivals are increasing, and if anything the market is a shade easier. Prime fresh Roll is selling at 37 to 38.

EGGS—Continue scarce, but the demand at present prices, 35c, is light.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in steady demand at $2,65. Small sales of Timothy Seed at $3 to $3,25; and Clover at $8 to $8,50, as to quality.

HAY—One dealer reports having sold within the past day or two, in three different lots, 68 tons prime baled, all to arrive, at $26.

MILL FEED—Sale of one car Middlings, on track, at $1,90 to $1,95. Shorts selling in small lots at $1,20 to $1,25.

APPLES—In better supply and dull with a drooping tendency. We hear of offers to sell pretty fair Apples, on track, at $3 to 3,25—small sales in store at $3,50 to $4, as to quality.

POTATOES—Continue very dull; small sales of Peach Blows in store, at 95 to $1 per bushel.

BEANS—In better supply but unchanged; regular sales at $2,50 to $2,75 per bushel, as to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Unchanged; Apples may be quoted at 9 to 10, in small lots, and Peaches at 17 to 20—quarters and halves.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, February 8, 1867. }

CRUDE—The market presents no new characteristics worthy of notice, being dull and neglected, while prices are nominally unchanged. "Smith's Ferry," is selling on the spot, at 7 to 7½, packages returned, and 12 to 12½, packages included, according to gravity. We are cognizant of offers to sell Kanawha at 9½, and Venango at 9, to arrive, without finding takers—there was a sale some days ago of ten thousand barrels, in two lots of five thousand each, for spring delivery, at 8¾, the buyers, we understand, advancing one dollar per barrel. Our latest advices from Oil City report Crude dull and drooping, with regular sales at that point at $2,20 to $2,25. Eastern advices continue discouraging, and the trade generally looks unpromising at present.

REFINED—There are no new features in the market for bonded oil—dullness and stagnation continue to rule supreme. We can report a sale of fifteen hundred barrels—500 for May delivery in Philadelphia, at 32; 500 for June, at 33; and 500 for July, at 34; also, an additional sale of 500 for June, at 33. The demand for both present and future delivery is very light, but as an offset to this, there is but comparatively little oil offering at present prices, as the great majority of our refiners seem disposed to hold off until refined advances or crude declines. Free oil is quiet and unchanged—small sales of standard brands at 43 to 44.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day—all from Smith's Ferry:

PITTSBURGH METAL AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, February 8, 1867. }

The market continues dull and neglected, there being no demand of any consequence, the mills still remaining idle, and as a matter of course, we have but very few transactions to record. The inquiry for foundry iron is also light, and as stocks of all kinds are not unusually large, there is no disposition manifested, apparently, to force sales, and prices, generally, are nominally unchanged. Manufactured iron is also dull, but few orders coming in, and at a meeting of the Iron Association on Thursday, the price of nails was reduced from 7½ to 6¾. We have the following sales reported:

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—In dry goods there is a fair inquiry for staple styles of heavy cottons at full prices. Bleached muslins of the least desirable makes are rather easier. Prints firm and in request. Domestic woolens in moderate demand and prices rule low; and foreign goods are still languid and irregular in price. Standard Sheetings, 21½@22; Leelands, 20@21. Prints—Bates, 11½@20, Bleached Muslins—Androscoggin, 21½; Green, 25; Waltham, 42 inch, 16½, and Amoskeag, A, 22½. Ticks, 40.

Gold closed at 137⅝.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Cotton dull, heavy and lower; sales of 700 bales of uplands at 32½@33c. Flour dull and a shade lower; receipts 900 bbls; sales 5,800 bbls superfine State and western at $9,00@10,10; extra western at $10,40@11,50, choice at $11,55@12,50, extra round hoop Ohio at $11,15@12,00—shipping, and $12,05@13,40 for trade brands, closing dull and drooping. Whisky quiet; sales 100 bbls western in bond at $2,30. Wheat dull and drooping; sales of 21,000 bush No 3 Milwaukee at $2,10; No 2 choice $2,40; winter red Canada $2,80; white Canada $3,00@3,20; white Michigan $3,25. Barley unchanged; sales 16,500 bush of western at $1,85, Canada East free $1,00, and Canada West choice free $1,24. Barley Malt dull. Corn more active and unchanged; receipts, 1,300; sales 6,000 bush mixed western in store at $1,30. Oats in moderate demand; receipts of 1,100 bush; sales 24,000 bush western at 60@64c. Peas; sales 7,000 bush Canada in bond at $1,25. Groceries dull. Hops steady. Petroleum quiet; crude 18½c; refined in bond 27@28c. Pork heavy and lower; sales 3,250 bbls new mess $20,62@21,12, closing at $20,87 for western regular; old mess $19,75@19,87, closing at the latter; prime $16,75@17,00; prime mess $19,00@20,00; also 1,250 bbls new mess at $21,00, sellers' option, for February and March. Beef steady; sales of 700 bbls at previous prices. Beef Hams firm; sales 125 bbls at $32,50@36,00. Cut Meats firm; sales 240 packages; shoulders 8½@9c; hams 10¼@13c. Dressed Hogs heavy at 9⅛@9½c for western, and 10@10½c for city. Bacon quiet and heavy; sales 380 boxes of Cumberland at $10⅛@10⅝c; short ribbed 11½@11⅝c; long ribbed 10⅞c, short clear 12c in tierces. Beef unchanged; sales 430 tierces at $29,50@31,00 for prime mess, and 33,50@35,00 for India mess. Lard steady; sales 350 bbls at 11½@12¼c for old, and 12⅝@13c for new. Butter dull. Cheese quiet.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, February 8.—Cotton dull but unchanged; middling is held at 29½@30c, with buyers at 29c. The money market is unchanged and firmer, and the supply is rather less than the demand. Flour is very firm, and at the close the higher grades were held at an advance of 10@15c; winter superfine $9,75@10,25, trade brands $11,50@13,50; fancy $14@15. Wheat firm and the demand good, at $2,40 for No. 1 spring and $2,90 for winter. Corn—There is a good demand from the south and prices are 2c higher; ear, 57@58c; shelled, 61@64c in the elevator, and in sacks, 78@79c; this demand is altogether from the south. Oats firm; No. 1, 51@52c in the elevator, and 61@62c in sacks. Rye has been in good demand and prices are 5@7c higher, closing at $1,25@1,26. Barley is very dull and prices nominal. The best fall is offered at $1,60, and spring at $1,20. Whisky advanced to $2,26, but only small sales were effected at this rate. The feeling on the part of packers and purchasers could not be made to any extent at our quotations, and it may be added that sales of any magnitude could not be made at them. There is a general order at the south for bacon, but very little for pork. Country mess pork sold at $20 and city at $20,50. Bulk meats could have been sold at a moderate extent for 7½, 9½, 10¾ and 11¼, but holders asked ¼ to ½c higher, therefore but little was done. These rates represent shoulders, sides, clear sides and hams. Lard is less firm; prime kettle could have been bought at 12¼c, but 12c was the best offer made, and the demand even at this rate was light. Bacon was in moderate demand at 9¾, 11, 11½, 12, 12¾, for shoulders, sides, clear ribbed, and clear paced. Sugar cured hams 15@16c. Butter and cheese steady. Eggs 25c. Seeds steady. Hogs $6@7c gross; receipts 980 head.

St. Louis Market.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—Tobacco quiet at $2 00@3 50 for lugs, and $6@21 25 for leaf. Cotton quiet at 29c for middling. RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede rapidly at this point, with eight feet in the channel by the Monongahela pier marks last evening. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant, and business was pretty lively at the landing.

There has been no arrivals since our last report, and the Leni Leoti, for Parkersburg, and the Robt. Moore for Portsmouth, were the only departures. There are several boats due, among others, the Ida Rees, Glasgow and W. F. Curtis.

The Grey Eagle, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, and passengers and shippers will bear in mind that she will leave promptly on time.

The towboat Traveller sunk at the levee on Thursday evening about eight o'clock, and the water is now almost up to her boiler deck; and she is careened considerably to one side. It seems that she had been loaded down very deep with coal on Thursday, and was left in charge of a boy, who was not aware of anything being wrong until she commenced going down, and he had that work getting ashore, as the boat was moored out some distance in the river. Being loaded entirely too deep, the water, it seems, filled her hold very quietly, flowing in without any difficulty, though she can doubtless be raised without much trouble. She is owned, we believe, by Capt. Jesse Reed and E. Davis, and was a very neat and powerful tug.

The Bellevernon left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday, and the R. C. Gray was announced to follow on Thursday. The Ida Rees, W. F Curtis and Glasgow left Marietta for Pittsburg on Wednesday, and the towboat Sam Roberts and Little Whale passed down in search of barges.

The Lorena arrived at Cairo on Wednesday, en route from St. Louis to Nashville, with a good trip. The Emma No. 3 and Armadillo, en route for New Orleans, and the Arabian, for St Louis, were at Evansville on Wednesday. The towboat Horner also left there the same day with eleven barges, as did also the Tigress without a tow.

The Directors of the Evansville and Cairo Packet Company, at a meeting the other day, settled all difficulties between that Company and the Quickstep, that boat going into the mail line until Capt. Throop's new packet, May Flower, is finished.

We extract the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Thursday:

Captain Merriless, of the Silver Moon, while coming up the Ohio a few nights since when near the mouth of Salt River, heard the cries of a man, apparently overboard on the ice. He immediately rounded the Moon too and went after him. The night being dark, some time elapsed before he could find him. The poor fellow was afloat on the wreck of coal barge and at the mercy of the ice. He was rescued with great difficulty, and taken to his home in Jeffersonville, Kentucky. His name was Grant, and was one of the party swept off from Jeffersonville by the movement of the ice gorge.

Capt. Richard E. Burch arrived from Indianapolis yesterday, and now that navigation is resumed, will resume his old old profession of piloting between Cincinnati and New Orleans. He is the same old six foot eight as we found while in the United States naval service, under Admirals Foote, Davis and Porter, during the rebellion.

Capt. Pres. Lodwick telegraphed from Portsmouth last night that the ice is still heavy, but that the Bostona will leave that point to-day for Cincinnati, returning to Portsmouth on Saturday at noon. Captain Charley David dropped in on us last night to announce that the C. T. Dumont will leave for Madison to-day at noon. Our special dispatches from Cairo briefly announce that Capt. G. Wash. Graham died in St. Louis yesterday. Capt. Graham was universally known all along the line of the Western and Southern waters from Pittsburgh to St. Louis and the Balize. He was born in Zanesville, Ohio, and for several years was one of the proprietors and managers of the Muskingum River Packet Lines. He was also located at Cairo for some time, in connection with his brother, N. W. Graham, Esq., as the General freight agents of the Illinois Central Railroad. When the rebellion broke out, he was among the first to volunteer his services, and having extensive knowledge in all matters relative to steamboating, rendered the Government and General Grant very efficient service in the selection of loyal men in navigating the Cumberland, Tennessee and Mississippi rivers and tributaries, in those memorable campaigns. While Master of transportation on the Western waters, he was noted for his untiring energy in dispatching the business of the fleet, as well as his impartial administration. To illustrate his character, it is only necessary to add that he came out of the service with less means than he entered it. He was genial, generous, brave, and the soul of honor. Many will miss Wash, now, that he has gone to rest.

Says the Louisville Courier: The Lake Erie No. 3, with four barges in tow, is expected from Vicksburg, and the Havana from Nashville. By dispatch from New Orleans, last evening, from Captain R. E. Neal, we learn that the Indiana left that port last evening, with a big trip for Louisville. Her cargo includes 1100 hhds sugar, the biggest and sweetest cargo of the season. The Wild Wagoner was sold on last Monday at New Orleans, by Captains Roberts and Condiff, to the New Orleans and Bayou Sara Mail Company, for $60,000 cash. The Robert E. Lee recently made the run from Baton Rouge to New Orleans in six and a half hours, making seven landings, and landed with 5000 bales of cotton. The distance is 130 miles, and the run, Captain Cannon says can be made by the Lee every trip.

The Memphis Appeal says:

It is reported that the cotton merchants of New Orleans are again gouging steamers by charging for sample holds, etc., in bales. Last season this was done to such an extent in that city that boats frequently refused to take cotton at this point. Why is it that cotton bound up stream is taken without "exception," by our boats, while that bound south is taken with so much reluctance? We would like to see all our cotton go through its old channel, but the merchants of that city must not try to cover their freight bills by damages, or they will get very little of the staple from this port.

A vessel is being fitted up at Cincinnati, by several business houses, as a "drummer" along the Ohio and its tributaries. She will be fitted out in style, with business offices, sample rooms, &c.

River Matters at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—River falling slowly, with twelve feet of water to Cairo. Freights plenty and tonnage equal to the demand, except for the Ohio. There is a large amount of freight here for that river, but no boats to take it. Arrived—Clara Dolsen, Sam Gaty, New Orleans; Princess, Arkansas River; Belle, Memphis. Departed—G. W. Graham, Memphis; War Eagle and J. C. Swan, New Orleans; W. B. Dance, Johnsonville; Agnes, White river. The weather has been much colder to-day and about two inches of snow fell this afternoon.

MISCELLANEOUS.

GOVERNMENT SALE.

The Property known as the "Government Tannery & Steam Saw Mill," with Seventy-five Acres of Land, near San Antonio, Texas.

SEALED PROPOSALS, in duplicate, will be received up to the FIRST DAY OF MARCH, 1867, for the purchase of 75 acres of Land, (more or less,) together with the Buildings erected thereon, and the appurtenances appertaining, that is to say:

ONE TANNERY, containing 12 Stone Lime Vats, Fifty-two Wooden Vats, Seven Stone Pools; and capable of tanning 15,000 hides per annum.

ONE STEAM SAW MILL, capable of sawing 5,000 feet of lumber daily.

ONE SMALL STONE BUILDING.

The above property is situated about two miles above San Antonio, on the San Antonio River, and the water is conducted to the establishment by a race of hewn stone laid in cement.

The land was purchased and improvements made by the late so-called Confederate Government, and are estimated to have cost $150,000 in gold.

The property has been under lease for the year 1866, at a monthly rent of $ 00, payable in advance. A secured title in fee simple will be given by the United States Government.

Proposals will be marked "Proposals for Government Tannery and Saw Mill," and addressed to LEGAL.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY, ss—The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

To the Sheriff of said County, Greeting:

Whereas, Samuel A. Long, lately in our District Court, before our Judges of our said Court at Pittsburgh, to wit: On the 8th day of January, A. D., 1867, by the judgment of our said Court recorded against John B. Sanderson, administrator of Louis A. D'Isra l, deceased, a judgment for the sum of twenty-one hundred and ninety-one and 53-100 dollars for his debt, as well as twenty dollars for his costs, and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said John B. Sanderson, administrator of Louis A. D'Israel, is convict as appears to us of record; and whereas, by the insinuation of the said Samuel A. Long, we have to our said Court understood, that although the judgment in form aforesaid be given, yet execution thereof still remains to be made, whereof he has besought us to grant unto him in this behalf a proper remedy, and we being willing that what is right and just should be done, herein do command you that by good and lawful men of your bailiwick, you give notice to the said John B. Sanderson, administrator, &c., of Louis A. D'Israel, with notice to the widow, if any, and the heirs at law, (names and residence to plaintiff unknown) of said Louis A. D'Israel, deceased, that they be and appear before our Judges, at Pittsburgh, at our District Court, there to be held for the county aforesaid, the FIRST MONDAY OF MARCH NEXT, to show, if anything, for himself or themselves they can say why the said plaintiff ought not to have his execution against them for debt, interest and costs aforesaid, according to the force, form and effect of the recovery aforesaid, if he shall think fit; and further to do and receive whatsoever our said Court, shall then and thereof and concerning him in this behalf consider, and have you then there the names of those by whom you shall make known to them, and this writ.

Witness, the Hon. M. HAMPTON, President of our said Court at Pittsburgh, the 10th day of January, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

JACOB H. WALTER, Prothy.
